In	Name and Address	From	To E.D.	Out

The JOHNSONS recalled that JAMES YATES, who was the successor to SARANT Laboratories, was observed in the store building with SARANT and/or BARR on numerous occasions. They were of the opinion that through SARANT and BARR, YATES was able to obtain this store building. It is to be recalled that JAMES YATES has denied knowing ALFRED SARANT; however, he has advised that he knew JOEL BARR. Mrs. JOHNSON believed that YATES is a Communist due to the fact that a neighbor of hers had advised that YATES had been seen marching in some type of Communist Party parade.

The JOHNSONS stated that a laboratory was operated next door to the SARANT Laboratories under the name of Products Development Company. They stated that the Products Development Company windows had been painted a dark blue.

2. Reinterview of JEROME HARRIS

On November 8, 1950, the writer recontacted JEROME HARRIS of the Sidney A. Harris Company, 161 Seventh Avenue South, telephone number CH 2-7470, at which time it was ascertained that the Products Development Labs, Inc., had rented the store next door to the SARANT Laboratories from May, 1945 to September, 1950 at 227 West 11th Street, New York City. HARRIS stated that from 1948 to September, 1950, the building had been used for storage. He indicated that the Products Development Labs was operated by one SEDWITZ and a FRANK PIERSON. He believed that they did photographic and radio work. According to HARRIS, SEDWITZ could possibly be located at the Radio Labs or some similarly named organization at 155 Perry Street, New York City. He was unable to furnish an address for FRANK PIERSON; however, he did state that he received a telephone inquiry from a Mr. AUBREY, Brooklyn Navy Yard, telephone number MA 5-4500, extension 2081, pertaining to a recommendation for one FRANK PIERSON, which might possibly be identical with FRANK PIERSON who was connected with Products Development Labs, Inc.

NY 65-15360

Mr. MAGNUS JOHNSON, Treasurer and Sales Manager for the Hogan Laboratories, Inc., 155 Perry Street, New York City, advised the writer on November 3, 1950 that the Hogan Laboratories had formerly been known as Radio Inventions, Inc., and that an individual by the name of IRA M. SEDWITZ identified a photograph of JOEL BARR as an individual whom he had met in connection with the SARANT Laboratories. He recalled that he had received some mail for SARANT Laboratories and that he had contacted BARR for the purpose of delivering this mail. He believes that the mail consisted of bills, circulars, etc.

He advised that OZOLS received mail from his uncle, who is a supervising construction engineer somewhere in Russia, and that those letters were destroyed after reading. OZOLS was arrested by SA T. H. TRACY and Immigration and Naturalization Service Inspector MONTGOMERY on April 1, 1937 and charged with making a false oath in that he did swear on July 1, 1936 when enlisting in the New York National Guard that he was born in the United States, whereas he was born in Latvia.

OZOLS, upon questioning, admitted that he was born September 17, 1910 in Latvia.

On May 27, 1937, Assistant United States Attorney MALONEY of the Southern District of New York, caused dismissal of United States Commissioner's complaint in view of impending deportation of OZOLS.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service at New York City indicate that OZOLS voluntarily left the United States on the SS YUCATAN February 25, 1938 for Havana, Cuba. III. INTERVIEW OF WARREN J. OESTREICHER
ON OCTOBER 18, 1950

On October 18, 1950, WARREN J. OESTREICHER, an engineer at the Tele King Television Corporation, 601 West 26th Street, New York City, was interviewed by SA FRANK P. MILLETTE. He advised that he met ALFRED SARANT in 1943 when they were both employed at the Western Electric Plant in Bayonne, New Jersey. He stated that they worked together for about two years and became quite friendly. OESTREICHER visited SARANT at his apartment at 65 Morton Street, New York City. He estimated that he had visited the Morton Street apartment on about five occasions.

OESTREICHER advised that he met JOEL BARR at the Morton Street apartment. He recalled that SARANT and BARR went into business together and tried to obtain Government contracts. Their business was known as "SARANT Laboratories", and their letterhead advertised "Projections in Depth". OESTREICHER advised that although he is an engineer, he did not know what "Projections in Depth" meant and SARANT and BARR were very secretive about it.

OESTREICHER reported that he never met anyone at the Morton Street apartment except Mrs. SARANT and JOEL BARR. He stated that he kept calling at this apartment because at that time he hoped to go into business for himself and perhaps SARANT might take him in.

OESTREICHER recalled that while in Bayonne, SARANT contacted a serious case of trench mouth. Mrs. SARANT, who is a nurse, moved into the apartment and took care of SARANT. They lived together several months before they were married.

OESTREICHER reported that he would have liked to have become more friendly with SARANT, but SARANT and BARR kept him at arms length. He felt that SARANT and BARR considered themselves superior to him. OESTREICHER stated that he considered SARANT a liberal and nothing more. In his opinion, SARANT was not a Communist.

OESTREICHER further reported that he recalled seeing photographic equipment in the apartment at 65 Morton Street, and stated that SARANT was always acquiring hobbies and felt that this was another one of SARANT'S numerous hobbies. OESTREICHER stated that he was married in 1943 and since he felt that his wife would not like SARANT, he and SARANT sort of drifted apart. He stated that he has not seen SARANT since 1944.

It is to be noted that OESTREICHER is apparently confused as to some of his dates. As an example, SARANT was not married until July 6, 1945, and for this reason it appears that he would be unable to report on happenings after that date when he states he has not seen SARANT since 1944.

IV. SARANT'S PRAXIDOS PHOTOGRAPHIC ENLARGER

A. Introduction

It is recalled that ALFRED SARANT has advised that he purchased a Praxidos Enlarger from JACK (?) ROSENBAUM while he was employed at the United States Signal Corps, General Development Laboratories, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. According to SARANT, ALICE KATZ, who was then residing in Long Branch, New Jersey, and was also employed in the Signal Corps Laboratories, told him that a girl friend, whose husband was going into the Army, had an Enlarger for sale. He added that the man's name was JACK ROSENBAUM. SARANT recalled that he purchased the Enlarger for $25.00, and ROSENBAUM lived "way out east" on 32nd or 33rd Street, New York City.

NY 65-15360

B. Interview of ALICE KATZ BARSKY

Mrs. SIDNEY BARSKY, nee ALICE KATZ, who resides at 1475 Metcalf Avenue, Bronx, New York, telephone number Tivoli 2-2251, was reinterviewed on November 2, 1950 by the writer. It is recalled that she had formerly been interviewed on August 10, 1950 by SA CHARLES D. VANCE, at which time she had advised that she had formerly been employed by the United States Army Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. At that time she stated that she could not recall anyone by the name of JACK ROSENBAUM.

On reinterview Mrs. BARSKY now recalls that an individual by the name of LEON ROSENBAUM, who currently resides at 20-45 21st Street, Astoria, Long Island, New York, telephone number ASTORIA 8-0188, had sold her former boyfriend, ALFRED SARANT, a Praxidos Enlarger prior to his going into military service. She stated that ROSENBAUM is a friend of hers, as was his former wife, RUTH FROMA. RUTH FROMA is now connected with the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization in Paris, France. She stated that ROSENBAUM remarried, and that his second wife's name is PAULINE. She advised that ROSENBAUM is an architect by profession.

Mrs. BARSKY reported that she first met SARANT in 1942 in one of the Laboratories at the Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth. She stated that shortly thereafter he left the Signal Corps and was employed by the Western Electric Company. Mrs. BARSKY further stated that their friendship continued up until her marriage in September, 1943. She stated that she left the New York City area and joined her husband, who was in the United States Army, stationed at that time in Alabama.

Handwritten: 8 pages

Mrs. BARSKY stated that she had visited SARANT and BARR at the 65 Morton Street apartment on occasions of musicals, in approximately 1944 and 1945. She stated that she had attended several of these musicals. However, she did not believe that the number exceeded six. She related that she had met SARANT'S wife, and that prior to her (Mrs. BARSKY'S) marriage, she had met SARANT'S immediate family, who are currently residing at Baldwin and Freeport, Long Island. Mrs. BARSKY stated that she met BETTY SANDERS at one of the musicals at SARANT'S apartment.

Concerning SARANT'S photographic equipment, at the outset Mrs. BARSKY advised that she is a professional photographer in addition to being a physicist by profession, having been one of the first women photographers at the New York City night club, Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe. She stated that she had also taught photography. Mrs. BARSKY related that in addition to the Praxidos Enlarger, he had an Argus C camera and complete developing and printing facilities. She related that SARANT'S photography work had been confined mostly to the snapshot variety, and she does not recall any indoor work or document type of photography performed by SARANT.

Concerning JOEL BARR, she stated that she had met him through SARANT while he was working at the Western Electric Company. She knew VIVIAN GLASSMAN as the "girl friend" of BARR'S. Mrs. BARSKY indicated that BARR had a similar interest in photography. VIVIAN GLASSMAN, according to Mrs. BARSKY, had reactivated her interest in photography through her friendship with JOEL BARR; however, it was her impression that VIVIAN GLASSMAN had been exposed to photography while a student at Hunter College. She stated that she doesn't believe that VIVIAN

GLASSMAN, at that time, had any photographic equipment, other than what was available to JOEL BARR. She stated that she could not be definite as to what type of equipment he had. Possibly his equipment was that which SARANT had. Mrs. BARSKY did not recall that either BARR, GLASSMAN, or SARANT ever had a Leica camera.

Mrs. BARSKY stated that SARANT was not a member of the Communist Party at the time she knew him, by reason that she believes that if he had been he would have tried to have recruited her into the Party. She explained that the only type of political activity which she knew that he was interested in was that he had morally supported her in her efforts to establish a union at the United States Signal Corps in Fort Monmouth, New Jersey.

Mrs. BARSKY stated that VIVIAN GLASSMAN, who she still maintains social contact with, had taken her to the apartment of one of SARANT'S former girl friends by the name of GLADYS MEYER sometime in 1944. She indicated that GLADYS MEYER lived on Waverly Place in New York City, with her sister, whose name she believes to have been ARLINE.

Confidential Informant T-26, of known reliability, advised on November 21, 1947 that the name of SIDNEY R. BARSKY, 1000 East 181st Street, Bronx, New York, appears on an addressograph stencil at the Communist Party, USA, District No. 2 Headquarters, New York City. The informant stated that the exact significance of this stencil is not known, but it is believed to be part of the Communist Party or affiliated organization mailing list. It is noted that the address of 1000 East 181st Street, is the residence of Mr. and Mrs. HARRY KATZ, parents of ALICE KATZ BARSKY, and that prior to living at 1475 Metcalf Avenue, Mrs. BARSKY stated she and her husband resided with her parents.

C. Interview of LEON ROSENBAUM

LEON ROSENBAUM, 20-45 21st Street, Astoria, Long Island, New York, was contacted by the writer on November 9, 1950. He stated that prior to entering the Army, he had sold his Praxidos Photographic Enlarger to ALFRED SARANT for $20.00 in approximately May or June, 1943. He stated that he had met SARANT in Long Branch, New Jersey, through ALICE KATZ BARSKY.

ROSENBAUM stated that he was only slightly acquainted with SARANT, and that he did not know JOEL BARR. He indicated that he had met VIVIAN GLASSMAN through Mrs. BARSKY.

ROSENBAUM stated that he was not familiar with any of the photographic equipment which SARANT had at that time.

V. INTERVIEW OF BERNARD GARFINKEL
ON OCTOBER 5, 1950

BERNARD GARFINKEL, who resides at 801 Hopkinson Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, was interviewed at the office of his attorney, MICHAEL WOLLIN, 215 Montague Street, Brooklyn, New York, by SA JOHN A. HARRINGTON, and the writer on October 5, 1950.

He recalled having attended musicals on one or two occasions at the SARANT apartment in the Greenwich Village area. The address of 65 Norton Street was suggested to him, and he stated that this was SARANT'S address.

NY 65-15360

In January of 1938 he graduated from the College of the City of New York with a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering Degree, and continued studying at the College of the City of New York for one additional semester, at which time, he passed a Civil Service examination and received an appointment of Junior Marine Engineer at the New York Naval Yard, Brooklyn, New York, in approximately June of 1938. This employment continued until August, 1946, at which time, he was released from Government employment for causes of "reduction in force".

Concerning his Government employment, he advised he had never been approached by anyone to supply any information pertaining to this employment, and stated that he doubted if any information which he could have furnished would have been of any value because he had never worked on anything of a classified, restricted or secret nature while employed at the New York Naval Yard. ON OCTOBER 24, 1950

LEWIS WOLFE GLEEKMAN, 10 Caldwell Place, Newark, Delaware, advised SAs FRANK A. STANTON and JAMES L. REINHART on August 16, 1950 that FRED KOHLER, a former roommate of his in New York City prior to his marriage, had recently returned to New York City from Mexico City. KOHLER, according to GLEEKMAN had attended musicals with him at ALFRED SARANT'S Morton Street apartment during the period from June, 1944 until February, 1945.

On October 24, 1950, SA VICTOR TURYN and the writer interviewed FRED KOHLER, owner of the Plastic Welding Corporation, Sixth Floor, 407 Broome Street, New York City, telephone number Canal 6-1227. KOHLER stated that his home address is 131 East 31st Street, New York City, telephone number Murray Hill 5-2077.

Concerning GLEEKMAN, KOHLER stated that he knew he was in sympathy with the Communist Party, although GLEEKMAN had never admitted that he was a member. He believed that GLEEKMAN was a member, but he could not positively state this. However, GLEEKMAN'S political philosophy was such that he could not have helped but have taken some positive action. Such action would have been for him to have been actively engaged in Communist Party activities.

Concerning SARANT'S Communist Party membership, KOHLER stated that it was common knowledge that he was a Communist. However, again he was unable to offer any positive proof as to this knowledge.

VII. ADDITIONAL INVESTIGATION OF SARANT'S
APARTMENT 6I, 65 Morton Street,
Greenwich Village, New York City

A. 65 Morton Street Realty Company

On October 30, 1950, SA HERMAN C. LITTLEJOHN JR. interviewed ROBERT GARLOCK, President and Managing Agent, 65 Morton Street Realty Company, 310 East 55th Street, New York City. He stated that EDWARD HARRISON, a former superintendent at 65 Morton Street, had rented apartment 6I to ALFRED SARANT in October, 1943.

NY 65-15360

GARLOCK indicated that he had had no contact with SARANT until possibly September of 1946 when he happened to be at 65 Morton Street and observed a moving van. GARLOCK asked his superintendent, FLOYD ELWYN, Senior, concerning this van, and he learned that SARANT was moving.

GARLOCK said he went to Apartment 6I alone, and saw ALFRED SARANT in the hall. SARANT, at that time, advised him that he was being transferred by the Bell Telephone Laboratories to Ithaca, New York, and that he was going to sublet his apartment for six months to a year. He indicated that his transfer was not permanent and wanted the apartment when he returned to New York. GARLOCK said that at the time he talked to SARANT, he noted through the open door of the apartment that it was practically empty, but said he saw packing barrels in the apartment.

GARLOCK said he told SARANT he could not sublet, and SARANT argued with him. GARLOCK said that SARANT told him he would be responsible for the rent, and would send a check each month for the rent. Mr. GARLOCK said he asked SARANT why he had not notified the Real Estate office of his pending transfer, and SARANT told him that this transfer came very suddenly. GARLOCK said that he told SARANT that he would investigate and find out about the transfer. Mr. GARLOCK said he did investigate. He advised the interviewing agent that he had written to Bell Telephone Laboratories, New York City, and he produced a copy of a letter dated September 19, 1946, addressed to the Bell Telephone Laboratories, in which GARLOCK had requested information concerning ALFRED SARANT, stating that SARANT had told GARLOCK that he was being sent to Ithaca, New York, on a special assignment that would take from three to five months. GARLOCK asked the Bell Telephone Laboratories for a verification of this transfer. Mr. GARLOCK advised that he had received an answer from this inquiry; however, he could not locate a letter from Bell Telephone, and stated that he had probably received the information by telephone.

It was on the basis of the information that he received that he wrote the letter dated December 27, 1946, previously reported, in which he told SARANT that Bell Telephone Laboratories had stated that SARANT had left their employ September 11, 1946, advising that he was planning to enter the teaching profession.

Mr. GARLOCK stated that he does not recall receiving an answer to this letter although he is sure that it was answered, and that SARANT told him he would be back to New York in six months to a year. GARLOCK stated that he then forgot about apartment 6I, except that he wrote numerous letters to SARANT concerning the fact that his rent was overdue. He said that copies of all of these letters were not kept.

Mr. GARLOCK stated that in the latter part of 1949, probably in either October or November, the superintendent at 65 Morton Street, FLOYD ELWYN, Jr., advised him that SARANT is back in apartment 6I. Mr. GARLOCK said that approximately two months later, he received a letter from SARANT, dated January 23, 1950, which has been previously set forth, in which SARANT advised GARLOCK that he wished to give up occupancy of apartment 6I. Mr. GARLOCK said that when he received this letter he told FLOYD ELWYN, Jr. to check the apartment, and he said that Mr. ELWYN later advised him that he found the apartment occupied.

GARLOCK said that he asked ELWYN to ask the occupant to move out a few days before the rent was up, so the apartment could be redecorated. Mr. GARLOCK said he had no other contacts with SARANT, but those he had related, and that he had no knowledge of any individual named JOEL BARR or the identity of any other of the alleged sub-tenants in apartment 6I.

Among numerous photographs displayed to Mr. GARLOCK were photographs of ALFRED SARANT. SARANT'S photographs were the only ones he identified, although he stated that a photograph of HENRIETTA SAVIDGE "looked familiar to him."

NY 65-15360

Confidential Informant T-15, of known reliability, advised on February 13, 1945 that the name ROBERT-GARLOCK, 310 East 55th Street, New York City, telephone PLaza 3-5993, appeared on a list of businessmen evidently prepared for solicitation in the March-June campaign of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee in connection with the United American Spanish Aid Committee.

It is to be noted that the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee and the United American Spanish Aid Committee have been declared by the Attorney General as "Communist", and within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

Mrs. JOANNE BOUDREAU, Secretary at the 65 Morton Street Realty Company, advised that the former secretary of this company two years prior to December, 1949 was ELEANOR ERICSON, 23-59 92nd Street, Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York, telephone number PLaza 3-5993.

In addition to the information previously reported, Mrs. BOUDREAU made another search of the 65 Morton Street Realty Company files, and located an Application for Lease of ALFRED SARANT, dated September 19, 1943, and two memorandums pertaining to SARANT on letterhead paper of the F. Le Grand Real Estate Broker, 271 West 11th Street, New York City. The Application for Lease, dated September 19, 1943, indicated that SARANT'S one year lease would start on October 1, 1943, that his address at that time was 93 West 34th Street, Bayonne, New Jersey, and his employment was the Western Electric Company, Bayonne, New Jersey. He gave as a reference the Bayonne Savings Bank, Bayonne, New Jersey.

The first memorandum, on stationery of the F. Le Grand, dated September 27, 1943, indicates the names of two personal references, J. R. BOETTCHER, President of the Universal Concrete Form Company, 101 Park Avenue, New York City, and J. ROMICH, Chief Engineer, Communication Measurements Laboratory, 120 Liberty Street, New York City.

NY 65-15360

The second memorandum, which was undated, is a handwritten copy of substantially the same information as appears on the first memorandum dated September 27, 1943.

B. Interview of HENRY GEORGE HAYWOOD

HENRY GEORGE HAYWOOD, Superintendent of 76 Charles Street, New York City, advised SA HERMAN C. LITTLEJOHN, Jr. and the writer on November 18, 1950 that he had formerly worked with FLOYD ELIYAH, Sr. as Assistant Superintendent at 83-89 Barrow Street, an apartment house, from 1927 to 1941. He stated that at this time a Mr. HARRISON (deceased) was superintendent at 63-69 Morton Street building which adjoined the Barrow Street building, and both building were owned by the same realty company.

Mr. HAYWOOD stated that in the winter of 1943 or 1944 he worked as a fireman at the 63-69 Morton Street building. He advised that he had no knowledge of any tenants in apartment 6I at 65 Morton Street.

Photographs of SARANT, BAER, and numerous others were exhibited to HAYWOOD without any identification.

C. Results of FBI Examination

The FBI Laboratory has examined the typewritten letter on the stationery of ALFRED SARANT, General Contractor, to Mr. ROBERT GARLOCK, New York, with the typewritten signature ALFRED SARANT, dated January 23, 1950. A definite conclusion could not be reached as to whether the typewriting was prepared on the typewriter owned by SARANT because of variations which could not be accounted for on the basis of the available known typewriting samples. The Laboratory examinations suggested the possibilities that the variations could be due to the condition of the ribbon at the time the known specimens were prepared, and also to the fact that some of the letters on the typewriter are dirty and therefore clear impressions are not made of these particular letters.

VIII. ADDITIONAL INVESTIGATION RE BOOK ENTITLED "MICRO WAVE TRANSMISSION
DESIGN DATA - SPERRY", SERIAL NO.
4964

Mr. JOHN NEIDERT was interviewed on November 8, 1950 by SA WILLIAM A. JOHNSON at the Sperry Gyroscope Plant, Lake Success, New York, where he is employed. He has been employed there as a Project Engineer since May 19, 1941.

Books received by Sperry

NEIDERT explained that he was a Sales Engineer back in 1944 and 1945 with the Company. He stated that the book entitled "Micro wave Transmission Design Data - Sperry" was at first classified information. However, around 1944 or 1945 the book was taken off the classified list through the efforts of the Army and Navy. After the book had been declassified it was widely advertised as it would have been of considerable interest and informational value to electrical engineers. Due to that fact, lots of books were dispatched to various responsible people after the clearance had been granted for that person to receive them. These people who received these lots of books were such men as were working at Massachusetts Institute of Technology or Camp Evans Signal Laboratory, and books were not sent to them until Sperry had received clearance on them.

Mr. NEIDERT advised that at least 600 of these books were sent out, and it would be impossible to know what happened to these books after they were sent out to these cleared people. He stated that he had no recollection as to what happened to the book, bearing serial number 4964. He stated that he did not know JOSEPH BALOGH of the Engineering Division at Western Electric, but stated that it was quite possible that a book had been sent to someone at Western Electric. He was not familiar with the name of ALFRED SARANT.

IX. INTERVIEW OF MAX AND GERTRUDE DOEBELI
OF SEPTEMBER 8, 1950

On September 8, 1950 SAS ALFRED B. CLARK and NORBERT T. DEMBINSKI interviewed MAX DOEBELI at 149 East 81st Street, New York City, telephone number RH 4-2709. DOEBELI identified a photograph of ALFRED SARANT, and stated that he was a former tenant of his at a rooming house which he and his wife, GERTRUDE, operated at 114 Norwood Avenue, Long Branch, New Jersey, from 1937 to 1945.

DOEBELI related that SARANT occupied a furnished flat at the above address with two other young men, whose names he could not recall. He added that SARANT was, at the time, attending the Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken, New Jersey, and experimented with some type of unidentified machine in his apartment. DOEBELI continued that when he sold the above property in 1945, no records of the past tenants were maintained. Consequently he could not furnish the exact dates of SARANT'S tenancy. He did state, however, that SARANT and his two companions resided at the above Long Branch, New Jersey, address sometime in 1941.

DOEBELI further stated that he and his wife moved to New York City following the sale of their property, and later departed for Switzerland in the Fall of 1947. Upon returning to New York City in January of 1948, he said he and his wife again resided at their present address. DOEBELI advised that he is a retired member of the Bureau of Statistics, United States Customs, New York City, and that his wife is presently engaged as a nurse.

Re report of Special Agent Robert F. Royal dated December 26, 1950, at New York.

A review of referenced report reflects that in the title the aliases Alfred E. Sarant, Alfred Sarant and Al Sarant are set out. Under current Bureau rules, as enunciated in Part A of Bureau Bulletin No. 51, Series 1950, none of those variations of subject's full name is properly termed an alias for indexing purposes and the setting out of such variations as aliases serves only to cause unnecessary clerical operations. Bureau letters to Charlotte and Phoenix dated October 27, 1950, and October 28, 1950, respectively, in captioned case, pointed out the undesirability of setting out titles in the manner followed in referenced report. Inasmuch as your office received copies of those Bureau communications, you should have had no difficulty in stating the title of this case in accordance with the Bureau's desires.

Data set out in referenced report, as described herein-after, are administrative in nature and should be so reported: page 11, paragraph 1, last sentence; page 12, paragraph 5; pages 13 and 14; page 19, last paragraph; page 21, paragraph 4; pages 22 and 23; page 25, paragraph 2; page 28, paragraphs 1 and 2.

As you know, investigative reports in this matter are being furnished to the Criminal Division of the Department and to the USA, SDNY, and must be prepared and reviewed carefully. Special Agent Royal's report should be revised in accordance with the foregoing observations and it is suggested that the data specified above to be reported under an "Administrative" caption be set out on new pages numbered to follow immediately after the revised "Details" section of the report, thereby making unnecessary to renumber the entire report. Corrected pages be furnished promptly to the Bureau and interested divisions.

DETAILS:

DAVID GREENGLASS and his wife, RUTH GREENGLASS, have advised that they were recruited into the Soviet espionage apparatus by JULIUS ROSENBERG, a brother-in-law of DAVID GREENGLASS. DAVID GREENGLASS is now serving a fifteen year sentence for transmitting certain classified data relating to the atomic bomb project at Los Alamos, New Mexico, to HARRY GOLD, a confessed Soviet spy now serving a thirty-year sentence for espionage. JULIUS ROSENBERG and his wife, ETHEL, were sentenced to death in April, 1951 in the Southern District of New York for conspiracy to commit espionage against the United States.

DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS learned through conversation with JULIUS ROSENBERG during the period 1946 to 1950 that he was extensively engaged in Soviet espionage in connection with which he was using as a conspiratorial headquarters and for the purpose of microfilming documents and making espionage contacts an apartment in the Greenwich Village section of New York City, and an apartment in the vicinity of Twelfth Street and Avenue B.

Information obtained from MAX ELITCHER, who admits that ROSENBERG attempted to recruit him for Soviet espionage, indicates that the Greenwich Village apartment was located at 65 Morton Street, New York City. This apartment was rented in the name of ALFRED SARANT from October 1943 to January 1950.

Confidential Informant T-1, of known reliability, advised on ~~12-23-51~~ that JULIUS ROSENBERG "mentioned an apartment rented by a student ostensibly used for studying on Morton Street where he, JOEL BARR and 'BILL' used to meet in secret to discuss their plans." ROSENBERG did not identify "BILL" at this time, but from other conversations informant had with ROSENBERG, "BILL" is believed by T-1 to be WILLIAM PERL.

On July 10, 1951 T-1 stated that ROSENBERG informed that this apartment was ostensibly rented for a student to have a place to study but that the real purpose was to have a place for meetings. ROSENBERG said that he had typed for many hours on various occasions in the Morton Street apartment and that to reduce the typing sounds he placed rubber pads under the typewriter table legs and would let the water run in the bathroom. ROSENBERG advised T-1 that he paid the rent on this apartment.

ALFRED SARANT, upon interview, has advised that he was a member of the Greenwich Village Branch of the Communist Party in 1943-1944 and believes that he met JULIUS ROSENBERG through a mutual friend named JOEL BARR. SARANT has denied that ROSENBERG was ever in his apartment at 65 Morton Street, but MAX ELITCHER has advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG, JOEL BARR, WILLIAM PERL (also known to him as WILLIAM MUTTERPERL), and ELITCHER and his wife, HELENE, were together in SARANT'S apartment, number 6-I, at 65 Morton Street, New York City, in 1943-1944.

In 1945 ALFRED SARANT married LOUISE JACQUELINE RUBEL-ROSS and moved to Ithaca, New York, in about September, 1946 at which time the apartment at 65 Morton Street, New York City, was taken by his friend, JOEL BARR. It was arranged that BARR would send him the rent for the apartment in Ithaca, New York, and that SARANT would then pay the landlord of 65 Morton Street by check.

SARANT has advised that WILLIAM PERL, who was a friend of both SARANT and JOEL BARR, used the apartment subsequent to JOEL BARR under the same rental paying arrangement and that PERL in sending the last money order payment in January, 1950 attached a note requesting SARANT to relinquish the apartment as PERL no longer had any use for it.

ALFRED SARANT, following his interview by Bureau agents in July-August 1950, fled the United States into Mexico, entering under an assumed name. His present whereabouts are unknown.

WILLIAM PERL has been identified as a Soviet agent by ROSENBERG to Confidential Informant T-1. PERL is at present under indictment for perjury before the Federal Grand Jury in the Southern District of New York.

JOEL BARR was identified as a Soviet agent by ROSENBERG to DAVID GREENGLASS following JOEL BARR'S sailing from the United States for Europe in January, 1948. ROSENBERG advised DAVID GREENGLASS that BARR was going to Europe to continue his espionage work in European countries.

ALFRED SARANT has advised that JOEL BARR had a girl friend named VIVIAN GLASSMAN and that he believes that VIVIAN GLASSMAN sent him the first few rental payments in the form of money orders for the apartment rent at 65 Morton Street, New York City.

The Albany Office advised on July 22, 1950 that a money order number 988487 issued at the Church Street Station Post Office, New York City, on August 8, 1949, payable to ALFRED SARANT from VIVIAN GLASSMAN, 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, as a remitter, was located in the account of ALFRED SARANT in the First National Bank of Ithaca, New York. This money order was in the amount of $45.00 and bore a deposit date of August 11, 1949.

VIVIAN GLASSMAN has advised upon interview that she was the former fiancée of JOEL BARR and that she had sent money orders to ALFRED SARANT in payment of the rent on 65 Morton Street in July and August, 1948. She also admitted that she had made an airplane trip to Cleveland, Ohio on July 22, 1950 to contact WILLIAM PERL with $2,000 in cash and to give instructions to PERL to leave the United States and go to Mexico. She stated that she received the $2,000 and the instructions for PERL from an unknown man who contacted her at her apartment at 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, on the evening of July 21, 1950. GLASSMAN claimed that the identity of the man who contacted her was unknown to her, but refused to assist agents to identify him.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that in conversation JULIUS ROSENBERG stated that on a holiday weekend, which the informant believes may have been the Fourth of July weekend, 1949, WILLIAM PERL removed some secret files from a laboratory located at Columbia University and that PERL took these files to ROSENBERG'S apartment at Knickerbocker Village, New York City, where ROSENBERG, PERL, a third unidentified individual who was called in from out of town, and a fourth man together spent fourteen to seventeen hours with two cameras photographing the material that PERL had obtained in order that PERL could return the material at his earliest convenience to Columbia University. ROSENBERG indicated to T-1 that the third man was MICHAEL SIDOROVICH, who he described as a member of his espionage organization.

Confidential Informant T-1 stated that the fourth man was a definite member of the ROSENBERG espionage apparatus; that he is the man who subsequently contacted VIVIAN GLASSMAN on July 21, 1950, to arrange with her to proceed to Cleveland, Ohio, to contact WILLIAM PERL and give him $2,000 in order to facilitate his flight from the United States to Mexico.

The informant advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG indicated that the Russians sent his last recruit to contact VIVIAN GLASSMAN on July 21, 1950 and that the last individual that JULIUS ROSENBERG recruited into his Soviet espionage ring was a man who lived with the son of a wealthy family. The informant stated that the son of the wealthy family owned a black convertible Buick automobile and that he had loaned his Buick to the last JULIUS ROSENBERG recruit who drove ROSENBERG to Ithaca, New York, to see ALFRED SARANT and make a pickup of espionage material.

Concerning the identity of the two individuals described above by T-1, investigation to identify the last recruit of JULIUS ROSENBERG who lived with the son of a wealthy family and who owned a 1949 or 1950 black Buick convertible automobile with a white top, indicates that one MAXWELL FINESTONE, with alias MAX FINESTONE, was the last recruit of JULIUS ROSENBERG and that EDWARD JAMES.

WEINSTEIN, commonly known as JAMES WEINSTEIN, was the individual with whom he lived.

JAMES WEINSTEIN is the son of JOSEPH WEINSTEIN, President of the Versailles Garment Corporation, 470 Seventh Avenue, New York City, a ladies' garment manufacturing firm. JAMES WEINSTEIN, in an interview with Bureau Agents on August 21, 1950, produced a New York State automobile registration dated January 19, 1950 for a 1949 Buick convertible.

JAMES WEINSTEIN resided at 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, with MAX FINESTONE from February 1950 to about October-November 1950.

MAX FINESTONE who was born on July 28, 1922 at Boston, Massachusetts, is a graduate of Cornell University having graduated in September 1949 and is a close friend of LOUISE (PUSS) SARANT.

On April 5, 1951 VIVIAN GLASSMAN was observed by SA JOHN J. DOERMER and the writer leaving her apartment at 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, with a man who was subsequently identified as MAX FINESTONE.

INFORMATION CONCERNING WORKERS PERSONAL SERVICE BUREAU

During an investigation to locate a banking record for the subject prior to 1948, information was received from the Manufacturers Trust Company, 55 Broad Street, New York City, which firm absorbed the Fulton Street Branch of the Brooklyn Trust Company in 1950, which indicated that VIVIAN GLASSMAN had converted a United States Savings Bond at the Brooklyn Trust Company on October 19, 1945. She stated that this field work was part of the school's training program and that the students received no salary from the organization to which they were attached and they were considered voluntary workers. She did not know the address of the Workers Personal Service Bureau.

~~Walter J. ...~~ stated that VIVIAN GLASSMAN'S file reflected she had also been assigned for field experience to the Jewish Community Service in Queens and Nassau Counties, New York, which is a family case work agency, and the the American Red Cross, New York City, during the time she was a social service student. She graduated in February, 1946.

The July 1945 issue of the "Transmitter", publication of Radio Local 430, United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America, Volume 3, Number 8, reflects an article regarding the Workers Personal Service Bureau, 391 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, New York. The article indicated that the Workers Personal Service Bureau had been endorsed by the Greater New York CIO Council, by prominent American Federation of Labor officials and by the City's Health and Welfare Agency through the Welfare Council of New York City; that it was available with advice to all working men and women who had problems of a financial, medical or personal nature at no cost; that the Bureau was a union staffed agency and knew all the answers to workers' problems. Its telephone number was reflected as Main 4-6892.

On ~~July 27, 1945~~, Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, advised that one ALFRED H. KATZ had informed her that he was Director of the Workers Personal Service Bureau; that the organization had been in existence for approximately ~~two~~ months and operated as a referral bureau for persons seeking employment and a sort of vocational guidance organization. T-2 stated that the organization operated on a $10,000 budget and that there were two or three girls in the office of the Bureau in addition to KATZ.

The informant stated that ALFRED H. KATZ was a member of the Communist Party and that KATZ' wife is MARIE KATZ who was an organizer for the Communist dominated Social Service Employees Union, a part of the United Office and Professional Workers of America, CIO.

T-2 stated the belief that the Workers Personal Service Bureau was a Communist front organization.

On November 7, 1945, Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, furnished the following information concerning the Workers Personal Service Bureau:

"This afternoon I interviewed Mrs. GLASSMAN who is a social service counselor for the Workers Personal Service Bureau, 391 Fulton Street, Brooklyn. The WPSB, she said, was formerly a committee created by the U.E. during the war to advise members on personal problems of family illness, finances, citizenship, need for child care while the mother worked, etc.

"Its successful application in the union, she went on, prompted officials to enlarge the committee's activity to embrace problems of workers and veterans regardless of union affiliation. It seems that a conference was "initiated by several Stalinist-controlled unions in the early months of this year. With the usual quota of dupes for window-dressing, they prevailed upon the Greater New York Fund to foot the operation of this agency.

"Established at its present address last March, the WPSB is affiliated with the Welfare Council of New York City. Under this arrangement it continues to receive funds from the Greater New York Fund for rent, salaries and whatever else is necessary for its maintenance. Inasmuch as it is sponsored by the Greater New York CIO Council and various well-meaning civic organizations, I gathered from her remarks that the sales talk to the GNYF dealt with its social good. Therefore, its financial support really stems from the CIO unions and civic organizations.

"Mrs. GLASSMAN, who is a member of the party-dominated Social Service Employees Union, told me her agency has been advising many veterans in the past two months, and more are coming for advice every day. Their problems usually revolve around jobs. Depending upon his particular skill or aptitude, the veteran is sent either to the USBS or a CIO union that can place him. Other problems are referred to various agencies, depending upon their specific nature. In all cases clients are given to understand the WPSB is definitely pro, not anti-labor. She intends to stock such literature as The New Veteran, The CIO and the Veteran and similar pamphlets published by the National CIO War Relief Committee, which recently changed its name to the National CIO Community Service Committee.

"As no other branch exists in New York City, Mrs. GLASSMAN serves as counselor to the UAW, 709 8th Avenue, every Wednesday evening. It is hoped, she said, that the agency can open a branch or two in others boroughs. The enclosed leaflet, containing a list of the board of directors, is the only piece of literature issued by this agency.

"In addition to Mrs. GLASSMAN another woman and a man occupy the rather small office. I chatted a while with both women but mostly with the former, and am convinced they are Stalinists. If this is not a front in the formal sense, there are sufficient Stalinists on the board of "directors and as staff counselors to direct policy and advice in accordance with their line."

On April 18, 1952, Reverend J. EMMET MC DONALD, Director of Catholic Charities, 191 Joralemon Street, Brooklyn, New York, and former Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Workers Personal Service Bureau, advised that he had served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for about two years or from about 1945 to 1947. He stated that the Workers Personal Service Bureau had its office located at 391 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, New York, and he recalled that the office staff consisted of ALFRED KATZ, who was the Director, and a woman named CAMILLE JONES, who assisted KATZ. He recognized a photograph of VIVIAN GLASSMAN as that of a woman who also assisted in the office as a counselor. He stated that he was not certain but believes VIVIAN GLASSMAN was probably a paid staff worker.

Reverend MC DONALD advised he did not have the employment records of the Workers Personal Service Bureau nor the cancelled checks used to pay the salaries of the office workers and did not know what disposition was made of these records when the Workers Personal Service Bureau disbanded. He expressed the opinion that they were probably taken by the Brooklyn Council of Social Planning, 30 Third Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, under whose sponsorship the Workers Personal Service Bureau functioned.

Reverend MC DONALD did not recall the identity of the bank used by the Workers Personal Service Bureau to deposit and disperse operating funds. He stated that Mr. EDWIN WILSON, Editor of the "Brooklyn Eagle" newspaper, was treasurer of the Workers Personal Service Bureau and would have this information.

On April 18, 1952, Mrs. LOUISE SIMSAR, Executive Secretary of the Brooklyn Council for Social Planning, YWCA, 30 Third Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, advised she was associated with the Workers Personal Service Bureau in 1946-1947 and served on the Board of Directors. She stated that her contact with the staff members of this organization was infrequent, being limited to meeting staff members only if they attended a planning conference. The only staff member she remembered was ALFRED KATZ who was in charge of the organization's office at 391 Fulton Street, Brooklyn. Shown a photograph of VIVIAN GLASSMAN, she advised she did not recognize her and did not know if GLASSMAN was a staff member.

Mrs. SIMSAR stated that the New York School of Social Work of Columbia University would send trainees to the organization for experience but that these trainees were not considered members of the staff and received no monetary compensation; that if GLASSMAN was serving as a trainee her name would not be found in the records of the organization as an employee and no pay checks would have ever been issued to her.

Mrs. SIMSAR stated that the Workers Personal Service Bureau had no other offices than that located at 391 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, New York; that the organization was dissolved in about 1948 due to lack of funds, and that the records of the organization are now at the Welfare and Health Council of New York City 44 East 23 Street, New York City.

On April 24, 1952, Miss CATHERINE FARRA, Welfare and Health Council of New York, 44 East 23 Street, New York City, advised that the Workers Personal Service Bureau was formerly sponsored by the Brooklyn Council for Social Planning which organization in turn was responsible to the Welfare and Health Council of New York; that it functioned during World War II as an aid to men and women gainfully employed who needed advice and assistance with their personal problems. The organization was closely connected with the CIO Union and was supposed to receive substantial financial support from the CIO but that CIO support was not given on a scale that would carry it and it was found necessary to contribute welfare money to continue its functioning.

Miss FARRA stated she did not know VIVIAN GLASSMAN; that she was acquainted with only one individual of the operating staff whose name was ALFRED KATZ and she had not met any other staff member.

She stated that when the Workers Personal Service Bureau discontinued its service in about 1947-1948, the records were sent to the Welfare and Health Council of New York. Miss FARRA, upon checking the employment records of the Workers Personal Service Bureau, advised that VIVIAN GLASSMAN'S name did not appear thereon and that she was therefore not a paid employee of the staff and had received no pay checks. Miss FARRA stated that VIVIAN GLASSMAN was very likely a college student who served voluntarily two days a week for practical social work experience.

Miss FARRA did not know the identity of the bank used by the Workers Personal Service Bureau.

Mr. EDWIN WILSON, Editor of the "Brooklyn Eagle" newspaper, Brooklyn, New York, telephonically advised that he served as Treasurer for the Workers Personal Service Bureau from May 22, 1945 to about December, 1946. He stated that he had no records of this organization other than the minutes of several meetings that he had attended and that he is not certain but he believes that the bank used by the Workers Personal Service Bureau was either the Brooklyn Trust Company or the Lafayette National Bank, Brooklyn, New York.

Mr. WILSON stated that he did not know any of the staff members of this organization other than ALFRED KATZ.

Miss MOGIL failed to call at the appointed time and she was telephonically recontacted on March 20, 1952 by the writer at which time she advised that she had not returned the telephone call as previously arranged as she had decided that she did not want to be interviewed. She stated she does not want to be involved with other people that the FBI might be interested in or investigating and although she does not know the nature of the Bureau's interest or who the agent's inquiry may concern, she did not want to inform on her friends. Miss MOGIL acknowledged that she had formerly attended Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

MRS. BELLA WEINROTH, 1724 West Third Street, Brooklyn, New York, was interviewed [REDACTED] She advised that she has a son by the name of JOHN JACOB WEINROTH, who is a composer and is presently using the name LAN ADOMIAN. b7c

An examination of the subject's Selective Service file at Local Board No. 142, 1265 East 37th Street, Brooklyn, New York, revealed that he had registered on October 16, 1940, using the name LAN ADOMIAN, but indicated he was also known as JOHN JACOB WEINROTH. He was assigned Order No. 2588 and as a result of a physical examination, reflecting he had Tuberculosis, on June 18, 1941 he was placed in classification 4-F. He gave his address on the registration date as 2256 East Seventh Street, Brooklyn, but advised the Local Board of the following changes of address: 1724 West Third Street, Brooklyn, New York, and 53 West 72nd Street, New York City, his present address.

The subject was born on April 29, 1905 at Mogilev, Russia, and is a naturalized United States citizen. His file further revealed that he is a composer, conductor and arranger of music. His experience includes commercial conducting for HOWARD BARLOW and ANDRE KOSTELANETZ. He listed the following relatives on an affidavit filed January 30, 1943:

Father:	ISRAEL WEINROTH, age 63, 1724 West Third Street, Brooklyn, New York
Mother:	BELLA WEINROTH, age 60, 1724 West Third Street, Brooklyn, New York
Brother:	DR. LEONARD WEINROTH, age 34, 1148 Fifth Avenue, New York City

The subject listed the following education:

1. John Hopkins University - one term
2. Peabody Conservatory of Music - two years
3. Curtiss Institute of Music - two years.

On his Selective Service questionnaire, he indicated that he made approximately $700.00 yearly as a result of his musical accomplishments and further indicated that he was divorced from his former wife, ISABELLE WEINROTH, nee KLEIMAN.

A check of the records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, 70 Columbus Avenue, revealed that JOHN JACOB WEINROTH, also known as JACOB WEINROTH and LAN ADOMIAN, became a naturalized United States citizen on March 26, 1940 in the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York. His naturalization file revealed that he filed his Declaration of Intention to Become a Citizen on December 10, 1936 in the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York; that he was born at Mogilev, Russia, on April 29, 1905; and that his last foreign residence was Cernauti, Rumania. The file revealed that he emigrated from Bremen, Germany, and entered the United States at New York City under the name JACOB WEINROTH on November 1, 1923 as a passenger aboard the SS PRESIDENT ARTHUR. His file contained an unused exit permit issued July 28, 1937 and also a permit issued January 22, 1938. He left the United States as a stowaway aboard the SS CHAMPLAIN in February of 1938 to join the Spanish Army in Spain and reentered the United States at New York City on December 30, 1938 as a passenger aboard the SS ALSONIA.

His file revealed that he had resided in New York from November of 1923 to November of 1924, in Baltimore, Maryland, from November of 1924 to April of 1926, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from April of 1926 to February of 1928, and in New York City from February of 1928 to February of 1936, and in Brooklyn from February of 1936 to March of 1940. The witnesses for his naturalization were HILDA B. SIMON, Social Worker, 315 West 21st Street, New York City, and ABE DIFSENHOF, Upholsterer, 301 Pulaski Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Information was also contained in his file reflecting that he had married ISABELLE KLEIMAN on June 5, 1926 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, she having been born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1908; that they were divorced, the final report being filed in the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on March 24, 1930, the cause being listed as cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities to the person.

MR. ABRAHAM SCHUMAN, 300 West End Avenue, advised he was manager of the apartment building located at 53 West 72nd Street, New York City. He stated that LAN ADOMIAN lives in Apartment 4-G with ABRAHAM DISENHOF. He further stated that ADOMIAN spends most of his time in his apartment where he believes he does his work as a composer and arranger of music. He further stated that at no time has he received any complaint concerning the activities of ADOMIAN and that ADOMIAN has never given him any reason to doubt his loyalty to this country.

The New York indices revealed that one ABRAHAM DISENHOF, on December 4, 1944, was a member of the HENRY FORD'S COMMUNITY CLUB, Communist Political Association, Manhattan. At the time, his address was 2872 West 21st Street, Brooklyn, and his occupation that of an upholsterer. Prior to this time, DISENHOF resided at 301 Pulaski Street, Brooklyn, and was a member of the Membership Committee of the Jefferson Club, 11th Assembly District, Brooklyn, New York. He was born in Russia on July 14, 1906 and became a naturalized United States citizen on February 6, 1933 in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York.

It is noted that ABE DISENHOF, Upholsterer, 301 Pulaski Street, Brooklyn, was a witness in ADOMIAN's naturalization proceedings. ABRAHAM ISAAC DISENHOF is the subject of a closing Security Matter - C file in this office.

A check was made of the credit records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York in September of 1946 but failed to reveal any new information concerning DISENHOF.

The bank account of LAN ADOMIAN at the Federation Bank and Trust Company, 34th Street and Eighth Avenue, New York City, was checked and revealed the following information:

MR. J. L. WILSON, of the above-mentioned bank, advised that ADOMIAN had opened an account on May 15, 1944 and that the account had an average balance of $100.00 for 1945 and $50.00 for 1946. He indicated that in June of this year the balance of the account was in the neighborhood of $250.00. MR. WILSON advised that ADOMIAN introduced himself at the bank and opened a regular checking account, giving his address as 1724 West Third Street, Brooklyn, New York, but that he had changed his residence and is now living, according to their records, at 53 West 72nd Street, New York. According to MR. WILSON, ADOMIAN is a musician and little is known about him because of his small account. He advised that the subject does not have a safe-deposit box in the bank.

An examination of the New York Herald Tribune newspaper, dated October 31, 1945, revealed that Page 18 was devoted to the Herald Tribune Forum which was being held at that time; that the Forum had decided that Soviet amity with the rest of the world was essential to lasting peace. The examination further revealed that one MARSHA SCOTT, wife of JOHN SCOTT, Time and Life correspondent, had recited her experiences on her first day in the United States. She indicated that she had spent her money right and left inasmuch as she had found an abundance of things to buy in this country, in contrast to those conditions that prevailed in Russia. It is also noted that DR. HENRY F. SINGER, Director of the Institute of History and Medicine, at John Hopkins University, also spoke on the same program as MARSHA SCOTT.

aboard the SS CAPE UGAT. On the occasion of her arrival, CLAUDIA WINSTON was interviewed, at which time she stated she was born on February 4, 1913 at Kishinev, Bessarabia, and that she renounced her Russian citizenship on December 2, 1942. She further stated that while she resided in Moscow she was employed as an editor of chemical books and that by profession she was a chemical engineer. Her employer, while she was in Moscow, was the Educational Division of the Soviet Government. She further stated that in 1934 she had met JOSEPH WINSTON, whom she married in October of that year, and that in 1935 she accompanied her husband to New York for three months.

She explained that her husband was born in Russia but was brought to the United States as an infant and was educated in this country as a civil engineer and had gone to Russia in the early part of 1930, where he was employed as a civil engineer. She explained that her husband had returned to the United States for approximately six months in 1937 and had finally left Russia in 1939 and that since that time she has been trying to secure the necessary papers and permission to leave Russia and come to the United States. At this time, JOSEPH WINSTON, then residing at 102 West 85th Street, New York City, verified the above-mentioned information and further stated he had gone to Russia to assist in the Five Year Plan but returned to the United States and although he had considered returning to Russia had not been able to do so because of war conditions. On this occasion, JOSEPH WINSTON stated that he was employed by the Board of Water Supply as a civil engineer, his business address being in care of the New York City Board of Water Supply, 120 Wall Street, New York City.

CLAUDIA and JOSEPH WINSTON are now residing in Apartment 10-A, 160 West 87th Street, New York City.

The names CLAUDIA IVANOVNA WINSTON and JOSEPH WINSTON were checked through the records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York with negative results.

JOSEPH WINSTON was also the subject of a closed Internal Security - G case, which file reveals he was born on September 30, 1888 at Bessarabia and that he had come to the United States on or about the year 1891, becoming a naturalized United States citizen on May 23, 1911 at New York City.

Confidential Informant [REDACTED] whose identity is known to the Bureau, advised that the name IAN ADOMIAN appeared on a mimeographed letter from the VETERANS OF THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE, advising of an Eastern Seaboard Conference to be held by the above-mentioned organization on February 9 and 10, 1946 at Manhattan Center, New York City. The letter was signed by several members of the ABRAHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE, including the name IAN ADOMIAN. b7D

Efforts have been made to develop a highly confidential source of information at ADOMIAN's residence, 53 West 72nd Street, New York City, but to date they have been unsuccessful.

Investigation has revealed that IAN ADOMIAN filed an application with the New York Telephone Company, on July 2, 1946, for the installation of a telephone at his residence, apartment 4G, 53 West 72nd Street, New York City. Mr. SCHUEMAN, manager of the apartment building at the above address states that the Subject spends most of his time in his apartment where it is believed he does composing and arranging of music. He further stated that the Subject makes and receives numerous telephone calls using the apartment house telephone, the telephone number being INDicott 2-4860.

ZOT IVANOVICH TCHERPOURNIK, employee of the U.S.S.R. Consulate, New York City, is a frequent contact of the subject. He is a public relations man at the Consulate and also handles all applications by Americans for visas to visit the Soviet Union. He has been observed in the company of ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV, Vice-Consul, a suspected WTD Agent, and has made other contacts under suspicious circumstances. Accordingly a letter is being directed to the Bureau requesting authority to conduct an Internal Security-R investigation of ZOT IVANOVICH TCHERPOURNIK.

It is to be noted that MARCIA SCOTT mentioned in this report is not identical with MARCIA SCOTT. The latter name is the name JESSICA SCOTT uses when she writes articles for the publication entitled "Political Affairs".

Inquires failed to reveal the identity of the unidentified man who had lunch with the subject and YAKOVLEV on May 24, 1946 and who then proceeded to the office of Mrs. ZILATO, Philharmonic Symphony Society, on the 15th floor of the Steinway Hall Building, West 57th Street, New York City.

MANNING that subject, a Communist Party lawyer, marched in the Communist Party Section of the May Day Parade in 1946, behind conspicuous banners and placards identifying the Party group and section, and thereby publicly held himself out as a Communist Party member.

Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, advised that subject marched in the 1950 May Day Parade.

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, advised Special Agent WILLIAM F. GEESLIN in November 1946 that subject and numerous other individuals had assisted in the campaign to reelect Congressman VITO MARCANTONIO on the American Labor Party ticket.

The American Labor Party was cited March 29, 1944 as a Communist front organization by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Confidential Informant T-5, of known reliability, advised Special Agent E. G. BURKE on August 8, 1947 that ED KUNTZ extended greetings from New York City to the Tenth Anniversary Journal of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, 1937 - 1947.

It is noted that the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade have been cited by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

Confidential Informant T-6, of known reliability, advised that subject was a member of the New York Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild, 1946 - 1947.

It is noted that the National Lawyers Guild was cited as a Communist front organization by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, March 29, 1944, (pages 147, 149).

NY 100-57195

The "Daily Worker" of September 21, 1948 reflected that EDWARD KUNTZ, attorney for the Morning Freiheit Association, was one of the attorneys defending "ALEXANDER BITTELMAN, veteran Jewish-American Communist leader who came here from Czarist Russia thirty-five years ago. BITTELMAN was being tried on a deportation charge.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that EDWARD KUNTZ was the candidate of the American Labor Party for Municipal Court Judge in the 1948 election. Informant furnished a pamphlet which reflected the following background information on subject:

"EDWARD KUNTZ, 54, lawyer, is a family man with three grandchildren. Born and bred in New York City.

"EDUCATION: Public and private schools. LL.B. Fordham Law School. LL.M. New York University Law School. Admitted to bar in 1918.

"HOUSING: Active in campaigns for low-rent housing projects.

"COMMUNITY: Active in all progressive movements throughout his career. General legal and social activity devoted to interests of labor and the underprivileged.

"LEGAL: Handled and tried many important criminal and civil cases involving labor, civil liberties, libel, and other actions.

"LABOR: For past 18 years participated in and tried many labor cases. Represented various trade unions and other organizations. Endorsed by Greater N.Y. CIO Council."

Confidential Informant T-1 advised Special Agent HERBERT P. LARSON on June 16, 1949 that subject was a nominee for Chairman of the American Labor Party Club, 3rd AD, So. at 313 Eighth Avenue, New York City. Informant stated that the club meeting was to be held on June 16, 1949 at 830 p.m. at the Club.

NY 100-57195

Subject as Chairman of the 3rd AL, So., 313 Eighth Avenue with numerous American Labor Party leaders urged full registration of American Labor Party members in order to bring about an American Labor Party victory in the 1949 election, according to Confidential Informant T-1 on October 7, 1949.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that subject was the American Labor Party candidate for General Sessions Judge in 1949.

Confidential Informant T-7, of known reliability, advised that the National Lawyers Guild had endorsed subject's candidacy for General Sessions Judge.

Confidential Informant T-8, of known reliability, advised Special Agents LOUIS D. NELAN, G. EDWARD SMART, and JOSEPH C. LEARNED that subject had made a $400 contribution to "The Challenge," a newspaper of Denver, Colorado.

"The Challenge," originally a weekly but subsequently changed to a bi-weekly newspaper, was published by the Rocky Mountain Foundation for a Free Press, Denver, Colorado, from March 24, 1946 to September 6, 1947. Investigation has determined and the signed statement of EDWARD J. CURRIE, former Business Manager of "The Challenge" and a self-admitted former Communist Party member, has substantiated the domination of the newspaper by the Communist Party.

The "Daily Worker" of December 1, 1949, page 3, column 1, reflects an article entitled "Savage Sentence Given 4 Arrested At DAVIS Rally", by ELIHU HICKS.

The four were sentenced by Judge HAMIE BUSHNELL in the Washington Heights Magistrate Court to 60 days each in the workhouse for disorderly conduct at the "Welcome Home Parade" in October 1949 for BEN DAVIS, convicted Communist Party leader. Judge BUSHNELL is quoted as having referred to the defendants as "political lice." "He also threatened to arrest one of the defense lawyers, EDWARD KUNTZ, for contempt of court."

NY 100-57195

Confidential Informant T-3 advised that EDWARD KUNTZ, attorney, had been contacted by Mrs. ALEXANDER regarding the release of her husband JOHN PAUL ALEXANDER from the New York City prison. KUNTZ arranged for ALEXANDER'S release on bail. This bail was supplied by the Civil Rights Congress. Informant stated that it is common practice on the part of KUNTZ to have individuals released on bail supplied by the Civil Rights Congress.

According to Confidential Informant T-3, KUNTZ is Chairman of the 3rd Assembly District, South, American Labor Party, and is the attorney for the American Federation For Polish Jews.

On December 20, 1949 Confidential Informant T-9, of known reliability, advised that the American Federation For Polish Jews was now under the full control of the "left wing and progressive element."

Confidential Informant T-3 stated that KUNTZ was drawing up complaints against JOSEPH CURRAN of the National Maritime Union in connection with the recent ousters of members of the National Maritime Union.

Subject maintains an office at 207 Fourth Avenue, New York City, with MORRIS A. GREENBAUM, an attorney and certified public accountant. Informant advised that KUNTZ and GREENBAUM maintain a "left wing organization."

According to the informant GREENBAUM has done accounting work for the "Daily Worker," the Shoe Workers Union, International Workers Order, "New Masses," "New Century", and the "Morning Freiheit."

It is noted that the International Workers Order is cited by the Attorney-General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

NY 100-57195

On February 27, 1948 the "Daily Worker" contained an article reflecting that:

"Masses and Mainstream," the new Marxist cultural monthly magazine, was a compilation of the thirty-seven year old tradition of the progressive movement's oldest Marxist publication, "New Masses," and the recently published "Mainstream."

The "Daily Worker" on August 23, 1946 contained an article by SAMUEL SILLEN, in which he stated that the New Century publishers issue most of the Marxist pamphlets in the United States, and added that the militant spirit of the workers today and the correctness of the Communist policy are reflected in the marked upswing of pamphlets in production and distribution.

The newspaper, "The Worker," the Sunday edition of an East Coast Communist newspaper, dated January 9, 1944, on page 3, sets forth an article by WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, Chairman of the Communist Party, U.S.A. This article states:

"The 'Morning Freiheit' is one of the many papers either owned or supported by the Communist Party."

The following Confidential Informants, who are familiar with various Communist Party activities in and around the New York area, were unable to furnish any information regarding the subject: T-10, T-11, T-12, T-13, T-14, and T-15.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York and the records of the Criminal Division of the New York Police Department reflected no information regarding the subject.

The Criminal records were searched by Special Agent AUGUST J. MICEK.

NY 100-57195

Confidential Informant T-16, of known reliability, advised that the subject represented Communist Party members arrested March 6, 1948 for disorderly conduct resulting from a Times Square demonstration by the Communist Party.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York were reviewed by SE RALPH MURDY.

The records of the Bureau of Special Services and Investigation were reviewed by SE A. J. TROWER, JR.

The Birth Records for New York City were reviewed by SE RICHARD F. O'HARA, who was unable to locate a record of subject's birth in the name of EDWARD KUNTZ.

It is possible that the following birth certificate reviewed by O'HARA is identical with subject:

Certificate #30025 for ELIZEKIEL KUNTZ, born June 27, 1894, Manhattan, to ABRAHAM KUNTZ, age 29, born Russia, and M. KATTY SHAPIRO, age 24, born Russia.

Confidential Informant T-5 advised that on April 22, 1946 subject stated that he would sign a statement to the effect that it was not illegal, and it was permissible, for veterans to march in uniform in the May Day Parade, but that he would sign as an individual rather than a representative of Local #65. He said that he could not sign as their representative unless he had first cleared through them. {

It was observed that approximately three hundred veterans in full uniform marched under the banner of the Communist Party in the May Day Parade, May 1, 1946. Numerous other veterans in uniform marched with other organizations such as the union.

Confidential Informant T-17, of known reliability, advised that the Communist controlled Local #65 of the United Wholesale and Department Store Employees of America, U.I.O., had dropped EDWARD KUNTZ as its attorney. The informant believes that the reason for this change was that KUNTZ has always been close to EARL BROWDER, former Chairman of the Communist Political Association. Informant stated that KUNTZ has a long record of Communist Party affiliations, [REDACTED]

Confidential Informant T-19, of known reliability, advised that on January 11, 1945 when applying for the rating of Junior Assistant Purser, WILLIAM BERNARD BERG submitted a document signed by EDWARD KUNTZ, an attorney. This document was a certification that from KUNTZ'S personal knowledge BERG was of good character, temperate habits, and was a suitable person to be entrusted with the duties of the station for which he made application.

BERG was formerly active in the circulation and affairs of the "Daily Worker," according to Confidential Informant T-19, of known reliability.

Confidential Informant T-7 advised that SIMON SCHACHTER, Editor of the official publication of the New York Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild, contacted EDWARD KUNTZ, the subject, September 19, 1949 regarding the non-payment of $5.00 for an ad in the May 1949 issue of the "Guild Lawyer," which KUNTZ owed to the Guild. At this time SCHACHTER also suggested that KUNTZ pay his dues to the Guild.

A. Contributions to the National Committee

[REDACTED] b1
[REDACTED] (c)

Miami Informant T-5, of known reliability, advised that a cashier's check drawn on the Miami Beach First National Bank in the sum of $935, dated September 26, 1952, was deposited to the account of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the ROSENBERG Case in New York City.

Miami Informant T-6, of known reliability, reported on March 23, 1953 that cashier's check number 100398, dated September 24, 1952 in the amount of $935, was drawn to the order of JOSEPH BRAUN, being endorsed by him. This check on the rear was noted "Paid to order of the Chase National Bank, National Committee to Secure Justice in the ROSENBERG Case." T-6 said his records reflected this cashier's check was purchased by H. GERVITZ in cash. It is believed that H. GERVITZ is undoubtedly identical to HYMAN GUREWITZ who, [REDACTED] has previously pointed out, serves as liaison between the Miami Chapter and the old group which worked on behalf of the ROSENBERGS.

B. Literature Distributed to the Miami Chapter Membership

b2

[REDACTED] has advised that the following leaflets received by ALIX MULDAVIN from the National Committee Headquarters in New York City have been distributed to members of the Miami Chapter:

1. Leaflet entitled "Sister of VANZETTI Appeals to the President for Clemency for ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG."
2. Leaflet entitled "Appeal for the ROSENBERGs," in the form of a petition addressed to President EISENHOWER.
3. Leaflet entitled "The Facts in the ROSENBERG Case."
4. Leaflet on the letterhead of the "Catholic Worker" pleading for the ROSENBERGs.
5. Copy of letter from W. C. HUESTON, Grand Secretary, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the World, addressed to President EISENHOWER pleading for the ROSENBERGs.
6. Copy of letter addressed to DAVID ALMAN, Secretary of the National Committee, from PATRICK E. GORMAN, Secretary-Treasurer of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters' and Butcher Workmen of North America, Chicago, on behalf of the ROSENBERGs.

C. Literature Distributed by the Miami Chapter to Outside Persons

As previously indicated in this report, [REDACTED] has stated that leaflets on behalf of the ROSENBERGs have been sent to Attorneys, Ministers, and other individuals in the Miami area whom the Miami Chapter hoped to influence.

b2

On March 21, 1953 an unidentified Minister, who desired to remain anonymous, forwarded to the Miami Office an envelope bearing the return address Post Office Box 4246, Miami 26, Florida, which had been addressed to the Minister, address having been removed. This envelope contained the following leaflets:

1. Leaflet entitled "His Holiness the Pope Says 'Spare the ROSENBERGs'".
2. Leaflet entitled "All Faiths Ask Clemency for the ROSENBERGs."
3. Leaflet entitled "Stay Granted! - U. S. Court of Appeals Says There Are Serious Questions in the ROSENBERG Case."

4. Leaflet entitled "Fact Sheet in the ROSENBERG Case."

Each of these leaflets had been issued by the National Committee to Secure Justice for the ROSENBERGs, 1050 Sixth Street, New York 18. The last, however, also bore a stamped notice reading "For further information or contributions, write Post Office Box 4246, Miami 26, Florida."

On March 23, 1953 [REDACTED] reported he had received an envelope bearing the return address Post Office Box 4246, containing a leaflet entitled "Fact Sheet in the ROSENBERG Case," one entitled "The Electric Chair Can't Kill the Doubts in the ROSENBERG Case," and one entitled "The ROSENBERGs Must Not Die." Each of these bore a label indicating it was issued by the National Committee in New York City. b7D

[REDACTED] reported he was not acquainted, to his knowledge with anybody who was a member of this organization and that it was unsolicited. b7D

[REDACTED] b1
By letter dated March 10, 1953, [REDACTED] b7D
[REDACTED] Miami Beach, Florida, transmitted to this office one circular received by him. This was a mimeographed circular entitled "Is Your Conscience Clear?", and urged the receiver to attend a meeting March 13, 1953 at 321 West Rivo Alto Drive, on behalf of the ROSENBERGs, at which time dramatic recordings would be played, up to date minute reports on status of the case would be given, and actions and plans for the future would be discussed. This leaflet bore the name of the Miami Committee to Secure Clemency for the ROSENBERGs.

It is to be noted that 321 West Rivo Alto Drive is the address of HARRY and RUTH SCHEMER, previously mentioned.

[REDACTED] b7D
[REDACTED] transmitted on March 13, 1953 to the Miami Office a similar circular received by him.

D. Correspondence Received From National Headquarters

[REDACTED] reported on March 25, 1953 that the following correspondence had been received from the National Headquarters of the organization: b2

1. Letter dated March 12, 1953 on a letterhead entitled "Clemency Dinner", Hotel Capitol, 51st Street and 8th Avenue, New York City, signed by MORTIMER RICHARD CAMIEL, M. D., Secretary, inviting "Dear Friend" to attend a clemency dinner March 18, 1953 at the Hotel Capitol, New York City.

2. Letter dated March 13, 1953 from DAVE ALMAN, Executive Secretary, National Committee to Secure Justice in the ROSENBERG Case, urging the Miami Committee to exert itself to the utmost in gathering the signatures for the "Amicus Brief."

3. Letter dated March 13, 1953 from DAVID ALMAN urging that the "Amicus Brief" be returned by April 1, 1953 at the latest.

4. Letter dated March 15, 1953 by AARON SCHNEIDER, Organization Secretary of the National Committee, enclosing a list of protestant ministers in Florida who "according to our information have signed a letter to President EISENHOWER for clemency for ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG." This letter stated these ministers should be approached without assumptions as to their commitments, and that the objective should be to involve them in some phase of the Committee work. A list of 39 ministers in Florida was enclosed in this letter.

E. Petition - "Amicus Brief"

[REDACTED] b1

"We believe that the trial of ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL on a charge of conspiring to commit espionage which resulted in death sentences for the ROSENBERGs and a 30 year sentence for their co-defendant, lacked guarantees of fairness which all Americans have a right to expect under the Constitution.

"The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals has called the Prosecutor's conduct 'reprehensible.' Justice JEROME N. FRANK stated, 'There are substantial questions of law. I would certainly not want to preclude their appeal to the Supreme Court. I would not want that to be on my conscience.'

"The F.B.I. admitted on December 2, 1952, that an important witness committed perjury under oath. Scientists all over the world call into doubt the scientific value of the alleged evidence and its credibility.

"We believe that transient political and social passions have no place in our courts; and to deprive even one American of the right to a fair trial is to injure the rights of all Americans.

"We therefore authorize the inclusion of our names in an Amicus Brief to the Supreme Court of the United States, petitioning that the verdict be set aside, and that a new trial be ordered based on Constitutional guarantees of impartiality and fairness in accordance with the best traditions of American justice."

Confidential Informant T-3, previously mentioned, advised on June 21, 1945 that STELLA HOPE PAGE had been a member of the Communist Party since 1937, and that instructions had been issued that no mail be sent to her home at 43 South Walnut Street, East Orange, New Jersey. UD

Confidential Informants T-7 and T-8, previously mentioned, advised on February 28, 1946 that STELLA PAGE was a member of the Orange Branch of the Communist Party, and had been a member of the Party for nine years.

Confidential Informant T-5, previously mentioned, advised on January 8, 1947 that STELLA PAGE was a member of the Professional Group of the Communist Party.

Confidential Informant T-14, another government agency which conducts security and personnel investigations, made available photostatic copies of the Communist Party Nominating Petition for PETER V. CACCHIONE for the office of Councilman in Kings County, 1939, Page 1920 of this petition contains signatures, dated August 13, 1939, of ETHEL ROSENEERG, convicted Soviet espionage agent and wife of JULIUS ROSENEERG, and STELLA H. ~~POGARSKY~~ X ~~POGARSKY~~, both residing at 111 South Third Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Confidential Informant T-15, of unknown reliability, but who was generally acquainted with members of the engineering group of the Young Communist League, City College of New York, admitted he was a member of the Engineering Group of the Young Communist League at City College of New York, and had attended meetings of the group during the first six months of 1937. He also advised that MARK PAGE, also known as MARK POGARSKY, was an active member of the Engineering Group of the Young Communist League at City College of New York for at least the first six months of 1937. He advised PAGE was instrumental in organizing the activities of the Young Communist League. He also advised that it was his opinion, although he had no definite information and it was only from hearsay, that PAGE had subsequently "graduated" from the YCL to the Communist Party, and he primarily based this on the fact that PAGE was a close associate of JULIUS ROSENBERG.

EDWARD L. OGDEN, Supervisor of Industrial Relations, Westinghouse Company, Bloomfield, New Jersey, advised that he was suspicious concerning PAGE and these suspicions were of possible Communist affiliations on the part of PAGE. Specifically, OGDEN stated that these suspicions resulted from a meeting of a local of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America at Westinghouse concerning the signing of non-Communist Party affidavits, the signing of which the National Office of the UERMA opposed. However, OGDEN advised that the Westinghouse local wanted to sign these affidavits, and that PAGE was the only one at this meeting who opposed signing them.

Mr. OGDEN also advised that when PAGE was about to be put into another job because of seniority when Westinghouse was laying off some of its employees, he was asked to sign, which was required, a Personnel Security Questionnaire, and PAGE refused to fill out the form.

On his War Department Application, dated June, 1940, JULIUS ROSENBERG, convicted Soviet espionage agent, gave as a reference MARCUS POGARSKY, 86 Columbia Street, New York City, and advised that he and the subject both had attended City College of New York, at which time they became friendly. ROSENBERG further advised that both he and the subject worked together for PAUL WILLIAMS, who operated the Williams Aeronautical Company on West 17th Street, New York City.

Confidential Informant T-12, of known reliability, advised on November 25, 1941 that PAUL WILLIAMS, former employer of both ROSENBERG and PAGE, had told him that he had been a flyer for the Spanish Loyalist Army.

Confidential Informant T-13, another government agency which conducts investigations of a personnel and intelligence nature, advised on March 26, 1945 that WILLIAMS was reported to have been a director of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade.

The Abraham Lincoln Brigade was cited by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

In an interview conducted by the writer and SA JOHN W. LEWIS in New York City on September 11, 1950, Mrs. EMANUEL MELVIN GREENBAUM, nee RUTH MARKOWITZ, 73 Willet Street, New York City, sister of STELLA PAGE, admitted being a former member of the Communist Party from 1936 to 1938, at which time she left the Party. She advised that during the Spanish Civil War, MARK PAGE had recruited numerous persons to fight for Loyalist Spain, but when she asked him why he did not go to fight for Loyalist Spain himself, PAGE replied that he was much too important an individual and should remain in the United States to further his career.

III. POSSIBLE ESPIONAGE ACTIVITY

In signed statements furnished to the New York Office on June 15 and 16, 1950, DAVID GREENGLASS, admitted Soviet espionage agent, identified JULIUS ROSENBERG as the individual who recruited him for Soviet espionage.

RUTH GREENGLASS, wife of DAVID GREENGLASS, advised SAS WILLIAM F. NORTON and JOHN A. HARRINGTON that ROSENBERG had told her that he had attempted to recruit PAGE to furnish information to the Russians, and that PAGE had refused to work for him. Mrs. GREENGLASS stated ROSENBERG was apparently upset when PAGE refused to cooperate.

Confidential Informant T-16, another government agency which conducts security and personnel investigations, advised on January 20, 1941 that JULIUS ROSENBERG was called in for a special hearing by another government agency and was questioned under oath.

At this hearing ROSENBERG advised that POGARSKY was one of his friends, and that he had attended college for about two years with him. He stated that both of them worked together for PAUL WILLIAMS, and that ROSENBERG and his wife lived about a year with POGARSKY and his wife. The arrangement was that POGARSKY rented a four room apartment and ROSENBERG and his wife rented one room from POGARSKY and furnished it. He also stated that he used to sell some Communist literature there and once the "Daily Worker" marked sample was shoved under the door and also some Communist leaflets.

Mr. MORRIS RUDMAN was interviewed at the New York Office by the writer and SA RICHARD A. MINIHAN on August 17, 1950, and he advised that at one time he went to JULIUS ROSENBERG's apartment at 10 Monroe Street, New York City, for the purpose of meeting DAVID GREENGLASS, but when he got there GREENGLASS was not present. However, PAGE and his wife were there, and although he stayed only for a few minutes PAGE or JULIUS ROSENBERG, Mr. RUDMAN could not be sure which, introduced him to PAUL WILLIAMS and told him that PAUL WILLIAMS had been a flyer for the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Spain.

SAMUEL GREENGLASS was interviewed by SA JOHN W. LEWIS on September 12, 1950 at the New York Office and advised that he was a halfbrother of ETHEL and DAVID GREENGLASS. He identified the photograph of MARK PAGE as an individual he had met at a party at the ROSENBERG's. He recalled that the subject was at the party one hour and during this time PAGE agreed with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG in every point that they made in a discussion of the "Worker" and concerning the general Communist Party line. The party was given on the occasion of the birth of ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG's first child.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

On December 15, 1950 the subject refused to be interviewed by agents of the Newark Office or furnish any information concerning his knowledge of JULIUS ROSENBERG.

On February 18, 1953 SA RICHARD T. HEADSKY and the writer interviewed the subject at his place of employment, the Ideal Toy Company, 184-10 Jamaica Avenue, Jamaica, Long Island, and when he was informed that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was interested in his knowledge of JULIUS ROSENBERG, convicted Soviet espionage agent, he stated he would not talk about that matter as he did not wish to be involved in that "mess". He did state that as far as he was concerned the case against ROSENBERG was well handled and he received a fair trial and sentence.

He also refused to discuss or answer any questions concerning the Communist Party.

On March 12, 1953 MARK PAGE was recontacted and asked if he had decided to talk to the FBI and he again refused.

A review of the personnel records, Federal Records Center, General Services Administration, St. Louis, Missouri, for MARK PAGE indicates that he was employed on January 9, 1941 with the War Department, War Ordnance Department, Watervliet Arsenal, Watervliet, New York. This employment was terminated on January 9, 1942 as a senior tool designer for reason of resignation for personal reasons.

The records reflected that the subject had executed a personal affidavit on July 2, 1941 at Troy, New York, in which it was subscribed and sworn to that "it shall be unlawful for any person employed in any capacity by any agency of the federal government whose compensation or any part thereof, paid from funds authorized or appropriated by any Act of Congress, to have membership in any political party or organization which advocates the overthrow of our constitutional form of government in the United States".

He also executed a United States Civil Service Commission Form 124b-Field, Declaration of Appointee, in which question number 15 states:

"Are you a member of any political party or organization which advocates the overthrow of our constitutional form of government in the United States?" to which he stated "No."

This was signed by the subject on January 1, 1941. However, the files contain only a copy of this form which does not contain the signature of the subject. The original copy of this form was forwarded to the Chief Ordnance, Washington, D. C. direct from Watervliet Arsenal on January 28, 1941.

Neighborhood investigation identifies several additional Russian Nationals friendly or associated with SARYTCHEV or his wife, including tentatively NIKOLAI PROKOPIEVICH KARPEKOV, PETR IVANOVICH TITOV, and possibly FEDOR PENISOVICH POPOV, all three of whom possibly are involved in Soviet espionage activities.

In the above list, those last names underlined refer to individuals believed to have resided at 153 Manhattan Avenue, or at 3 West 108th Street or 64 West 108th Street, in the immediate neighborhood. Those names followed by an asterisk (*) are believed to represent individuals who have served in various Soviet installations as chauffeurs. Those names followed by the number sign (#) are believed to be those of individuals who have resided at 127 West 90th Street, 141 West 90th Street, or 143 West 90th Street, Manhattan. The first address is that of subject's most recent residence and the second neighborhood is that where he is believed to have resided upon his arrival in the United States; i.e. at 123 West 90th Street.

MR. and MRS. RENTA and MR. FRANK SIERRA advised that photographs of VASILY GRIGORYEVICH BORISOV, MIKHAIL ALEKSANDROVICH RYUKHACHEV, GALINA MIKHAILOVNA TITOVA,

SERGEI DANILOVICH SIDOROV and MARIA SEMENOVNA RYUKHACHEVA appear familiar to them, but advised that they could not place these individuals, are not sure that they ever resided in the building, 153 Manhattan Avenue, and cannot definitely associate them with SARYTCHEV or his wife. They advised that the photograph of NIKOLAI DMITRIEVICH BASSOW also appears familiar to them and they believe that he resided in Apartment 51 in the building.

They stated that the photograph of MIKHAIL ALEKSANDROVICH RYUKHACHEV might be that of the first Russian tenant, whom they recall as occupying Apartment 51 in the building, but pointed out that if so they remember him as wearing glasses. They stated that the person they have in mind as the original Soviet National in that apartment has been seen in the neighborhood in the last few days at the grocery store at 155 Manhattan Avenue, accompanied by his wife, a boy about seven years, a boy about five and a half years, and a younger girl.

ROLAND SERRA advised that the only photograph of those listed above that seems at all familiar to him is that of ANASTASIA ALEKSEEVNA SIDOROVA, but said he could not provide any details.

MR. FREDERICK WEISS advised that he recognizes only the photographs of SERGEI DANILOVICH SIDOROV, whom he described as definitely a former customer in his store, MARIYA DMITRIEVNA STAROSTINA, whose photograph seems familiar, and ALEKSANDR KAPITONOVICH STARTSEV, whom he says he definitely knows as a customer still in the neighborhood.

MRS. HERNANDEZ advised that the photographs of IVAN ALEKSANDROVICH FILIPPOV, MIKHAIL IVANOVICH SHACHNEV, and VITALY PETROVICH NOVOZHIDOV seem vaguely familiar to her and that the photograph of ANASTASIA ALEKSEEVNA SIDOROVA seems definitely familiar, as probably that of a tenant in Apartment 51, nextdoor to her.

She stated that she remembers the SARYTCHEVs and said that they, as well as the other Russian tenant, were extremely reserved in manner and kept the shades drawn at all times and permitted no one, except other Russian Nationals, to enter the apartment. She recalled that SARYTCHEV's wife was away all day and returned late at night, until the arrival of her second child. She stated that after the SARYTCHEVs left, the apartment was found to be in a filthy condition, with some of the furniture left behind.

MRS. HERNANDEZ said that she is unable to identify any associates or friends of the SARYTCHEVs, with the possible exception of those whose photographs she described as familiar. She did recall that the SARYTCHEVs were away from their apartment on a few occasions for perhaps as long as two weeks at a time, and that in their absence other Russians occupied their apartment.

MRS. ANNA SEGAL advised that photographs of the following were familiar to her, but were photographs of persons she could not definitely identify as tenants or otherwise:

IVAN ALEKSANDROVICH FILIPPOV
VASILI ALEISHEVICH LAVRENOV
NATALIA LAVRENTIEVNA NISOVA
SERGEI DANILOVICH SIDOROV
KONSTANTINE FILIPPOVICH KOMISSAROV
PELAGEYA TIMOFEEVNA PROKHOROVA
MIKHAIL ALEKSANDROVICH RYUKHACHEV
VITALY PETROVICH NOVOZHILOV
VIKTOR ANDREEVICH PROKHOROV
ALEKSANDER STEPANOVICH PERTSEV
GEORGI FOTIEVICH NIKOMENKO
ZOYA NIKOLAEVNA FOMINA
ANTONINA ALEKSANDROVNA STAROSTINA
NIKOLAI MIKHAILOVICH SHASHKIN
ANNA VASILEVNA SHASHKINA

She stated that NIKOLAI DMITRIEVICH BASSOW may have lived at 141 West 90th Street or 143 West 90th Street.

NY 65-15340

She stated that she definitely knows VASIL GRIGORYEVICH BORISOV and MIKHAIL IVANOVICH SHACHNEV.

MRS. SEGAL stated that the photographs of NIKOLAI PROKOPIEVICH KARPEKOV are definitely familiar to her. She stated that she distinctly remembers seeing this person, possibly as a visitor, but remembers that he was a very handsome young man or excellent manners. She stated that he bowed politely in a manner which made her think of a German General.

MRS. SEGAL said that the photograph of TATIANA ALEKSEEVNA FEDOTOVA is very familiar and that, if she is a blond woman, about five feet five or six inches tall, weighing 125 to 130 pounds, of slim build, wearing about a size 14 dress, of fair complexion, she probably is the woman who at one time returned with a man, until then unknown to her, to try to get her to save an apartment for other Russian Nationals. She said that the apartment had been vacated by other Soviets, with no effort to reserve it, so that after some renovation she had rented it to non-Russian tenants.

She identified the photograph of VITALY PETROVICH NOVOZHILOV as possibly that of the man accompanying the woman. She said that the woman spoke excellent English, but with a slight accent, and acted as interpreter. She said that the man was polite and reasonable, but that the woman, after asking and then begging and offering additional rent, became angry and threatening and used profane and offensive language in criticizing her for not making the apartment available to her people. She recalled that the woman was well-dressed, with a modern hairdo and makeup. She described her as obviously sophisticated, unlike most of the Soviets with whom she had been in contact.

Information available from Confidential Informant T-2, another government agency which maintains personnel records, as of November 15, 1945, further identifies FEDOTOVA as a housewife residing at

135 West 90th Street, Apartment 4-FW, New York City, who was born on July 12, 1922, at Sumy, USSR, and who entered the United States on July 28, 1945, on board the SS JAMES GUNN at New York. She is the wife of LEONID NIKOLAEVICH FEDOTOV, who was Secretary of the Consulate General of the USSR at 7 East 61st Street, New York City.

MRS. SEGAL recalled that she previously had tentatively identified the photograph of MARINA IVANOVNA KUZMINA as the wife of GRIGORI IVANOVICH KUZMIN, the latter of whom she definitely recalled as having been her tenant in the ground floor apartment at 141 West 90th Street. She pointed out, however, that the photograph of GALINA MIKHAILOVNA TITOVA is positively that of her tenant in that apartment.

She repeated that she knows GRIGORI IVANOVICH KUZMIN; that KUZMIN is definitely familiar to her and that she thought he had been a tenant. She said she is even more certain, however, that GALINA MIKHAILOVNA TITOVA was the tenant in that apartment.

It is noted, however, that she found the photograph of PETR IVANOVICH TITOV, the husband, only possibly familiar.

APP 4A

She recalled that TITOVA had indicated that she would return to Russia with her children to the City of Kiev. MRS. SEGAL recalled that a neighbor of Latvian origin, who spoke Russian, had heard differently: that only the children were returning to Russia and that they were returning to Moscow or a city other than Kiev.

MRS. SEGAL stated that shortly before the family was to depart, numerous packages and large boxes containing presumably radio sets, refrigerators and even a bicycle were delivered to the house. She noted that these boxes were not addressed to Kiev. MRS. SEGAL said she pointed this out to her Latvian tenant, who remarked that the packages would probably be stolen when they reached the border anyway.

As previously reported, MRS. SEGAL recalled that this family left the building and presumably sailed on the MS BATORY at the time GERHARDT EISLER fled the United States, aboard this ship. She remembered, however, that in approximately September or October, 1950, she ran into TITOVA near the corner of 104th Street and Columbus Avenue. At this time TITOVA was in the company of another woman. MRS. SEGAL said that she expressed surprise at seeing TITOVA, having thought she had returned to Russia. TITOVA was friendly and said she was then living in Brooklyn. Before the conversation could go any farther, however, the other woman interrupted, speaking Russian, obviously protesting against TITOVA's conversation with MRS. SEGAL, and almost forcibly hurried TITOVA away from MRS. SEGAL and into a taxicab, which she quickly hailed.

MRS. SEGAL stated that this meeting surprised her and that at this time she disbelieved TITOVA's statement about living in Brooklyn, primarily because both TITOVA and the other woman were carrying packages of groceries, giving her the impression that they lived in the immediate neighborhood. It was her impression at this time that TITOVA and the other woman took the taxi merely as a means of quickly avoiding her.

MRS. SEGAL stated that her suspicions concerning TITOVA and the other woman seemed confirmed approximately two weeks later when, while standing on the sidewalk at the corner of 106th Street and Columbus Avenue, she observed TITOVA and the same woman at the window of a second story apartment facing on 106th Street, a door or two East of Columbus Avenue. She said she did not believe that TITOVA or the other woman noticed her when she saw them.

She advised that the photograph of SERAFIMA KONSTANTINOVNA POPOVA seemed to be that of the woman with TITOVA on the two occasions referred to above, except that she remembered this woman as wearing her hair shorter.

MRS. SEGAL also recalled that when TITOVA first resided at 141 West 90th Street she appeared to be nothing more than the usual Russian housewife wearing nothing but housedresses with no make-up, and remaining at home with her children most of the time. Later on, however, she appeared well dressed with a modern hairstyle and make-up and went off to work each day. She explained that she was working for the "Russian Embassy."

Mrs. SEGAL recalled that TITOVA'S apartment was always locked with the shades drawn and the lights on all day. She recalled that on one occasion one of her children locked herself out and the janitor was unable to open the window facing the street, finding it nailed or otherwise fastened shut.

She stated that no one except other Russians were known to have entered the apartment. She recalled that TITOVA had described SARYTCHLVA as her sister or cousin or other relative, and had at one time attempted to obtain an apartment for the SARYTCHLVs at 143 West 90th Street. #75's wife

It is noted that NIKOLAI POKROPOVICH KARPLEKOV arrived in the United States on April 29, 1944, and departed on July 20, 1946, which is probably before Mrs. SEGAL acquired an interest in the property at 141 and 143 West 90th Street, New York City.

It is noted, however, that Mrs. SEGAL stated that she has for years been a close friend of Mrs. LALLON, owner of the premises and who managed the property previous to Mrs. SEGAL'S lease thereto. KARPLEKOV originally was a student at Columbia University and left the United States as the husband of FLORA DON KOVSOVSKA, a close associate of JUDITH COPLIN. KARPLEKOV also is suspected of having engaged in Soviet espionage activities.

Information available from Confidential Informants T-2 and T-3, other government agencies which maintain personnel information, reflects the following

concerning TITOV and TITOVA:

TITOV first arrived in the United States on August 23, 1943, as a student attending classes at Columbia University. He was born on August 15, 1915 (or August 5, 1915 or August 25, 1915, all three dates appearing). He first resided at 64 West 108th Street. While a student at Columbia University, he also worked at Amtorg, apparently as a civil engineer. He was also shown as residing at 32 East 35th Street, New York City.

It is not known when he departed from the United States following this first arrival, but he and TITOVA returned to the United States on December 1, 1947, arriving at New York City aboard the SS VILNIUS. They resided first at 104 Riverside Drive, Apartment 1B, and thereafter at 64 West 108th Street. TITOV again worked at Amtorg, 210 Madison Avenue, Manhattan, and is described as a group leader in charge of miscellaneous imports as of January 3, 1948.

X² → The POPOVs have a daughter, NATALIYA, who was born in 1944. POPOV and his family are still in the United States and presently reside at 932 Columbus Avenue.

Further concerning LITOV and possibly POPOV, the following is noted:

STANLEY C. WEYMAN, 2114 Albemarle Road, Brooklyn, made several contacts between April 5, 1949, and June 19, 1949, with SA RAYMOND P. WORTH and provided information to the following effect:

WEYMAN, an ex-convict who has been in the bristle business since his release on parole from prison, has a daughter with definite Communist Party friends and associates. Following interruption of commerce in bristles with China, WEYMAN made several contacts with the Amtorg Trading Corporation in an effort to obtain bristles. He was given no encouragement by Amtorg officials. Thereafter, following two pretext telephone calls to his wife for information about him, he discovered in late March, 1949, that he was under surveillance on several different days. He stated that on the second day of surveillance he turned suddenly and faced the man following him squarely, so that the latter realized WEYMAN knew he was being followed. He described the person following him as a man five feet eleven inches in height, of heavy build, broad face, brown suit, and wearing a hat with an unusually narrow brim.

It is noted that this description is described as almost identical with that made available by SA PAUL J. BLASCO following his original surveillance of POPOV.

Later, WEYMAN received a telephone call apparently referring to the earlier surveillances and received a visit by a Russian, who gave his name as REDOROV, who is described as a man six feet two inches in height, 190 pounds, about fifty years old, with a broad face, deep-set eyes and clean shaven cheeks. After his visit, this man directed WEYMAN to call Amtorg to "discuss a personal matter." Thereafter, WEYMAN had several contacts at Amtorg with one TITOV, who occupied a room at Amtorg, which had the telephone number listed to PETR IVANOVICH TITOV, who was in the Import Section with hair, fibres, bristles, and related commodities.

At his initial interview with TITOV, the latter neglected discussion of the bristle industry in favor of considerable conversation about WEYMAN's background and his willingness to leave the United States. WEYMAN stated that TITOV clearly possessed extensive background information concerning him and in his conversation gave the impression that he wanted to recruit him, probably for espionage purposes. WEYMAN, subsequently, at TITOV's request, got in touch with and was again interviewed, not concerning the bristle business, but concerning his, WEYMAN's, background by SERGEI STRIGANOV at the Soviet Embassy, in Washington, D. C. He was told by the latter to prepare a visa application form and provide photographs and six references and was told to return such documents to LEV S. TOLOKONNIKOV, also of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C.

The latter official, it is noted, accompanied VALENTIN GUBITCHEV during the latter's trial as a Soviet espionage agent, and appeared to be assisting defense counsel in preparation of his defense, including the interrogation of witnesses at the trial.

WEYMAN was also in touch with CHARLES RECHT, New York attorney who has been registered as official attorney for the Soviet Embassy and various other Soviet agencies in this country for a number of years.

Information available from Confidential Informant T-2 indicated that as of July 1, 1949, ANASTASIA ALEKSEEVNA SIDOROVA resided at 153 West Manhattan Avenue, New York City.

It is noted that neighbors had previously stated that the wife of a previous tenant had stayed on after her husband's departure and lived in the apartment at 153 Manhattan Avenue for several months after the SARYTCHEVs became tenants there.

In the above list, those last names underlined refer to individuals believed to have resided at 153 Manhattan Avenue, or at 3 West 108th Street or 64 West 108th Street, in the immediate neighborhood. Those names followed by an asterisk (*) are believed to represent individuals who have served in various Soviet installations as chauffeurs. Those names followed by the number sign (#) are believed to be those of individuals who have resided at 127 West 90th Street, 141 West 90th Street, or 143 West 90th Street, Manhattan. The first address is that of subject's most recent residence and the second neighborhood is that where he is believed to have resided upon his arrival in the United States; i.e. at 123 West 90th Street.

MR. and MRS. RENTA and MR. FRANK SIERRA advised that photographs of VASILY GRIGORYEVICH BORISOV, MIKHAIL ALEKSANDROVICH RYUKHACHEV, GALINA MIKHAILOVNA TITOVA,

SERGEI DANILOVICH SIDOROV and MARIA SEMENOVNA RYUKHACHEVA appear familiar to them, but advised that they could not place these individuals, are not sure that they ever resided in the building, 153 Manhattan Avenue, and cannot definitely associate them with SARYTCHEV or his wife. They advised that the photograph of NIKOLAI DMITRIEVICH BASSOW also appears familiar to them and they believe that he resided in Apartment 51 in the building.

They stated that the photograph of MIKHAIL ALEKSANDROVICH RYUKHACHEV might be that of the first Russian tenant, whom they recall as occupying Apartment 51 in the building, but pointed out that if so they remember him as wearing glasses. They stated that the person they have in mind as the original Soviet National in that apartment has been seen in the neighborhood in the last few days at the grocery store at 155 Manhattan Avenue, accompanied by his wife, a boy about seven years, a boy about five and a half years, and a younger girl.

ROLAND SERRA advised that the only photograph of those listed above that seems at all familiar to him is that of ANASTASIA ALEKSEEVNA SIDOROVA, but said he could not provide any details.

MR. FREDERICK WEISS advised that he recognizes only the photographs of SERGEI DANILOVICH SIDOROV, whom he described as definitely a former customer in his store, MARIYA DMITRIEVNA STAROSTINA, whose photograph seems familiar, and ALEKSANDR KAPITONOVICH STARTSEV, whom he says he definitely knows as a customer still in the neighborhood.

MRS. HERNANDEZ advised that the photographs of IVAN ALEKSANDROVICH FILIPPOV, MIKHAIL IVANOVICH SHACHNEV, and VITALY PETROVICH NOVOZHILOV seem vaguely familiar to her and that the photograph of ANASTASIA ALEKSEEVNA SIDOROVA seems definitely familiar, as probably that of a tenant in Apartment 51, nextdoor to her.

She stated that she remembers the SARYTCHEVs and said that they, as well as the other Russian tenant, were extremely reserved in manner and kept the shades drawn at all times and permitted no one, except other Russian Nationals, to enter the apartment. She recalled that SARYTCHEV's wife was away all day and returned late at night, until the arrival of her second child. She stated that after the SARYTCHEVs left, the apartment was found to be in a filthy condition, with some of the furniture left behind.

MRS. HERNANDEZ said that she is unable to identify any associates or friends of the SARYTCHEVs, with the possible exception of those whose photographs she described as familiar. She did recall that the SARYTCHEVs were away from their apartment on a few occasions for perhaps as long as two weeks at a time, and that in their absence other Russians occupied their apartment.

MRS. ANNA SEGAL advised that photographs of the following were familiar to her, but were photographs of persons she could not definitely identify as tenants or otherwise:

IVAN ALEKSANDROVICH FILIPPOV
VASILI ALEISNEEVICH LAVRENOV
NATALIA LAVRENTIEVNA NISOVA
SERGEI DANILOVICH SIDOROV
KONSTANTINE FILIPPOVICH KOMISSAROV
PELAGEYA TIMOFFEVNA PROKHOROVA
MIKHAIL ALEKSANDROVICH RYUKHACHEV
VITALY PETROVICH NOVOZHILOV
VIKTOR ANDREEVICH PROKHOROV
ALEKSANDER STEPANOVICH PERTSEV
GEORGI FOTIEVICH NIKONENKO
ZOYA NIKOLAEVNA FOMINA
ANTONINA ALEKSANDROVNA STAROSTINA
NIKOLAI MIKHAILOVICH SHASHKIN
ANNA VASILEVNA SHASHKINA

She stated that NIKOLAI DMITRIEVICH BASSOW may have lived at 141 West 90th Street or 143 West 90th Street.

NY 65-15340

She stated that she definitely knows VASILY GRIGORYEVICH BORISOV and MIKHAIL IVANOVICH SHACHNEV.

MRS. SEGAL stated that the photographs of NIKOLAI PROKOPIEVICH KARPEKOV are definitely familiar to her. She stated that she distinctly remembers seeing this person, possibly as a visitor, but remembers that he was a very handsome young man of excellent manners. She stated that he bowed politely in a manner which made her think of a German General.

MRS. SEGAL said that the photograph of TATIANA ALEKSEEVNA FEDOTOVA is very familiar and that, if she is a blond woman, about five feet five or six inches tall, weighing 125 to 130 pounds, of slim build, wearing about a size 14 dress, of fair complexion, she probably is the woman who at one time returned with a man, until then unknown to her, to try to get her to save an apartment for other Russian Nationals. She said that the apartment had been vacated by other Soviets, with no effort to reserve it, so that after some renovation she had rented it to non-Russian tenants.

She identified the photograph of VITALY PETROVICH NOVOZHILOV as possibly that of the man accompanying the woman. She said that the woman spoke excellent English, but with a slight accent, and acted as interpreter. She said that the man was polite and reasonable, but that the woman, after asking and then begging and offering additional rent, became angry and threatening and used profane and offensive language in criticizing her for not making the apartment available to her people. She recalled that the woman was well-dressed, with a modern hairdo and makeup. She described her as obviously sophisticated, unlike most of the Soviets with whom she had been in contact.

Information available from Confidential Informant T-2, another government agency which maintains personnel records, as of November 15, 1945, further identifies FEDOTOVA as a housewife residing at

135 West 90th Street, Apartment 4-FW, New York City, who was born on July 12, 1922, at Sumy, USSR, and who entered the United States on July 28, 1945, on board the SS JAMES GUNN at New York. She is the wife of LEONID NIKOLAEVICH FEDOTOV, who was Secretary of the Consulate General of the USSR at 7 East 61st Street, New York City.

MRS. SEGAL recalled that she previously had tentatively identified the photograph of MARINA IVANOVNA KUZMINA as the wife of GRIGORI IVANOVICH KUZMIN, the latter of whom she definitely recalled as having been her tenant in the ground floor apartment at 141 West 90th Street. She pointed out, however, that the photograph of GALINA MIKHAILOVNA TITOVA is positively that of her tenant in that apartment.

She repeated that she knows GRIGORI IVANOVICH KUZMIN; that KUZMIN is definitely familiar to her and that she thought he had been a tenant. She said she is even more certain, however, that GALINA MIKHAILOVNA TITOVA was the tenant in that apartment.

It is noted, however, that she found the photograph of PETR IVANOVICH TITOV, the husband, only possibly familiar.

She recalled that TITOVA had indicated that she would return to Russia with her children to the City of Kiev. MRS. SEGAL recalled that a neighbor of Latvian origin, who spoke Russian, had heard differently: that only the children were returning to Russia and that they were returning to Moscow or a city other than Kiev.

MRS. SEGAL stated that shortly before the family was to depart, numerous packages and large boxes containing presumably radio sets, refrigerators and even a bicycle were delivered to the house. She noted that these boxes were not addressed to Kiev. MRS. SEGAL said she pointed this out to her Latvian tenant, who remarked that the packages would probably be stolen when they reached the border anyway.

As previously reported, MRS. SEGAL recalled that this family left the building and presumably sailed on the MS BATORY at the time GERHARDT FISLER fled the United States, aboard this ship. She remembered, however, that in approximately September or October, 1950, she ran into TITOVA near the corner of 104th Street and Columbus Avenue. At this time TITOVA was in the company of another woman. MRS. SEGAL said that she expressed surprise at seeing TITOVA, having thought she had returned to Russia. TITOVA was friendly and said she was then living in Brooklyn. Before the conversation could go any farther, however, the other woman interrupted, speaking Russian, obviously protesting against TITOVA's conversation with MRS. SEGAL, and almost forcibly hurried TITOVA away from MRS. SEGAL and into a taxicab, which she quickly hailed.

MRS. SEGAL stated that this meeting surprised her and that at this time she disbelieved TITOVA's statement about living in Brooklyn, primarily because both TITOVA and the other woman were carrying packages of groceries, giving her the impression that they lived in the immediate neighborhood. It was her impression at this time that TITOVA and the other woman took the taxi merely as a means of quickly avoiding her.

MRS. SEGAL stated that her suspicions concerning TITOVA and the other woman seemed confirmed approximately two weeks later when, while standing on the sidewalk at the corner of 106th Street and Columbus Avenue, she observed TITOVA and the same woman at the window of a second story apartment facing on 106th Street, a door or two East of Columbus Avenue. She said she did not believe that TITOVA or the other woman noticed her when she saw them.

She advised that the photograph of SERAFIMA KONSTANTINOVNA POPOVA seemed to be that of the woman with TITOVA on the two occasions referred to above, except that she remembered this woman as wearing her hair shorter.

MRS. SEGAL also recalled that when TITOVA first resided at 141 West 90th Street she appeared to be nothing more than the usual Russian housewife wearing nothing but housedresses with no makeup, and remaining at home with her children most of the time. Later on, however, she appeared well dressed with a modern haircut and makeup and went off to work each day. She explained that she was working for the "Russian Embassy."

MRS. SEBAL recalled that TITOVA'S apartment was always locked with the shades drawn and the lights on all day. She recalled that on one occasion one of her children locked herself out and the janitor was unable to open the window facing the street, finding it nailed or otherwise fastened shut.

She stated that no one except other Russians were known to have entered the apartment. She recalled that TITOVA had described SARYTCHILVA as her sister or cousin or other relative, and had at one time attempted to obtain an apartment for the SARYTCHILVs at 143 West 90th Street.

It is noted that NIKOLAI PRKOPETICH KANPLEKOV arrived in the United States on April 29, 1944, and departed on July 20, 1946, which is probably before MRS. SEBAL acquired an interest in the property at 141 and 143 West 90th Street, New York City.

It is noted, however, that MRS. SEBAL stated that she has for years been a close friend of MRS. LANTON, owner of the premises and who managed the property previous to MRS. SEBAL'S lease thereto. KANPLEKOV originally was a student at Columbia University and left the United States as the husband of FLORA DON KOVSEKIN, a close associate of JUDITH COPLIN. KANPLEKOV also is suspected of having engaged in Soviet espionage activities.

Information available from Confidential Informants T-2 and T-3, other government agencies which maintain personnel information, reflects the following

concerning TITOV and TITOVA:

TITOV first arrived in the United States on August 23, 1943, as a student attending classes at Columbia University. He was born on August 15, 1915 (or August 5, 1915 or August 25, 1915, all three dates appearing). He first resided at 64 West 108th Street. While a student at Columbia University, he also worked at Amtorg, apparently as a civil engineer. He was also shown as residing at 32 East 35th Street, New York City.

It is not known when he departed from the United States following this first arrival, but he and TITOVA returned to the United States on December 1, 1947, arriving at New York City aboard the SS VILNIUS. They resided first at 104 Riverside Drive, Apartment 1B, and thereafter at 64 West 108th Street. TITOV again worked at Amtorg, 210 Madison Avenue, Manhattan, and is described as a group leader in charge of miscellaneous imports as of January 3, 1948.

He described the person following him as a man five feet eleven inches in height, of heavy build, broad face, brown suit, and wearing a hat with an unusually narrow brim.

It is noted that this description is described as almost identical with that made available by SA PAUL J. BLASCO following his original surveillance of POPOV.

Later, WEYMAN received a telephone call apparently referring to the earlier surveillances and received a visit by a Russian, who gave his name as FEDOROV, who is described as a man six feet two inches in height, 190 pounds, about fifty years old, with a broad face, deep-set eyes and clean shaven cheeks. After his visit, this man directed WEYMAN to call Amtorg to "discuss a personal matter." Thereafter, WEYMAN had several contacts at Amtorg with one TITOV, who occupied a room at Amtorg, which had the telephone number listed to PETR IVANOVICH TITOV, who was in the Import Section with hair, fibres, bristles, and related commodities.

At his initial interview with TITOV, the latter neglected discussion of the bristle industry in favor of considerable conversation about WEYMAN's background and his willingness to leave the United States. WEYMAN stated that TITOV clearly possessed extensive background information concerning him and in his conversation gave the impression that he wanted to recruit him, probably for espionage purposes. WEYMAN, subsequently, at TITOV's request, got in touch with and was again interviewed, not concerning the bristle business, but concerning his, WEYMAN's, background by SERGEI STRIGANOV at the Soviet Embassy, in Washington, D. C. He was told by the latter to prepare a visa application form and provide photographs and six references and was told to return such documents to LEV S. TOLOKOLNIKOV, also of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C.

The latter official, it is noted, accompanied VALENTIN GUBITCHEV during the latter's trial as a Soviet espionage agent, and appeared to be assisting defense counsel in preparation of his defense, including the interrogation of witnesses at the trial.

WEYMAN was also in touch with CHARLES RECHT, New York attorney who has been registered as official attorney for the Soviet Embassy and various other Soviet agencies in this country for a number of years.

Information available from Confidential Informant T-2 indicated that as of July 1, 1949, ANASTASIA ALEKSEEVNA SIDOROVA resided at 153 West Manhattan Avenue, New York City.

It is noted that neighbors had previously stated that the wife of a previous tenant had stayed on after her husband's departure and lived in the apartment at 153 Manhattan Avenue for several months after the SARYTCHEVs became tenants there.

He stated that he does not know her husband at all.
